BATTLE HYMN OF THE DAVISES

TUNE: "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The Davises are sons of Davis, with a lofty aim.
A favorite with Scottish Kings, there's music in the name.
In righteous causes Davis spirits rise to fervent flame.
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to the name of Davis!
Glory to the tribe of Davis!
"Vir-tu-te du-ce co-mi-te
For-tu-na"—Davis wins!

The ancient sires of Davis Fam'ly lived and died in Wales.
Where English tongue is spoken now the Davis name prevails.
How could the nations but advance when Davis never fails?
The clan goes marching on!

Thomas, Samuel, John and James were fathers of our clan.
Benja-min had nine stalwart sons, each was a handsome man.
"Ben Davis" is the apple, good from tree or from a can.
The clan goes marching on!

The Davis Clan is mighty—over half a million strong;
In seventy-six three thousand kinsmen fought to right a wrong.
Thirty towns bear Davis names. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

"I have not a minute man who is afraid to go,"
At Concord Bridge, said Captain Isaac, with his heart aglow.
He gave his life at the first shot from muskets of the foe.
The clan goes marching on!

Jeff Davis was a statesman—the hero of Dixie-land;
The South made him their President, and Davis took his stand.
Though cause be lost we lead or follow as we understand.
The clan goes marching on!

The Davis sons have courage any enemy to face;
The Davis girls are lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The Davis leaven is a blessing to the human race.
The clan goes marching on!

If you claim the name of Davis, help the Davis song to sing;
With Davis blood and motto you can win at anything;
Family pride and "valor" surely will "good fortune" bring.
The clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

THE Davis family is among the forty-nine "best families" selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years. The Davis family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States, its members having played important rôles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Davises have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In references No. 7 and No. 14 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name Davis.

Davis is a Welsh surname, and the family is among the most numerous in England and Wales. This is due to the fact that there are so many variations of the name. The original name was David—which signifies well-beloved—popular in Biblical days and a favorite among the Scottish kings.

Though of ancient standing in Wales, David scarcely appears in England before the Conquest. Modified in various forms, it has produced many family names such as Davis, Davidson, Davies, Daves, Dawson, Dawes, Day, Dakin, etc. The Irish form is M'Daid; the French, Devis.

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters, and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compilers hope that, in producing this volume they are bringing to the Davis family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that they are rendering an important service to the public. They and their associates will be glad to give their cooperation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers, are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

Generations . . . . .	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th

(B) THE DAVIS COAT OF ARMS

COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A.D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Davis Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is the Arms of the Davises of Northamptonshire, England. Coats of Arms very similar to it are recorded for several other branches of the Davis family. Numerous other Davis families use Coats of Arms resembling it.

This is the most widely used of all Davis Coats of Arms. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations. Crozier, in his GENERAL ARMORY, records it for Dolor Davis, who settled in Massachusetts, 1634, and for branches resident in Washington, D. C., Kentucky, etc. It has been used for generations by their descendants and by many other American branches of the Davis family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms . . . . .	Gules, a chevron engrailed between three boar's heads erased argent.	A chevron between three silver boar's heads on a red shield.
Crest . . . . .	On a chapeau gules, turned up ermine, a boar statant.	A boar standing upon a red hat with a turned up ermine brim.
Motto . . . . .	Virtute duce comite fortuna.	Under the guidance of valour, accompanied by good fortune.

The boar's head was once the chief dish at Christmas feasts in palace and castle. When England's sovereigns kept Christmas of yore in their noble halls at Guilford, Eltham, Westminster or Windsor in high estate, arrayed with crown and sceptre, clothed in ermine and surrounded by their wondering subjects—it was brought to their table with great ceremony. The introduction of the great dish was accompanied by music and singing . . . often by the song reprinted below.

“Caput Apri refero
Reddens laudes Domino.
The bore’s head in hand bring I
With garlans gay and rosemary,
I pray you all sing merrily
Qui estic convivio.

“The bore’s head, I understande
Is the chief servyce in this lande
Loke wherever it be fande
Servite cum cantico.”

So is explained the significance in the Davis Coat of Arms of the three silver boar's heads.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said “Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families.”

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Davis family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms, in proper colors.

(K) DAVIS TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

DAVIS: Calif., Ill., Mo., N. C., Okla., S. Dak., W. Va.; DAVISBORO: Ga.; DAVISBURG: Ky., Mich.; DAVIS CITY: Iowa; DAVIS CREEK: Calif.; DAVIS JUNCTION: Ill.; DAVISPORT: Ky.; DAVIS STATION: S. C.; DAVISTON: Ala.; DAVISTOWN: Pa., Tex.; DAVISVILLE: Ky., Mo., Pa., R. I., W. Va.; DAVIS WHARF: Va. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Davis". This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) DAVIS CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama.....	498	Illinois.....	1809	Mississippi.....	122
Arizona.....	140	Indiana.....	1255	Missouri.....	914
Arkansas.....	226	Iowa.....	571	Montana.....	168
California.....	2547	Kansas.....	276	Nebraska.....	260
Colorado.....	460	Kentucky.....	200	Nevada.....	12
Connecticut.....	449	Louisiana.....	159	New Hampshire.....	229
District of Columbia...	395	Maine.....	361	New Jersey.....	976
Delaware.....	145	Maryland.....	455	New Mexico.....	41
Florida.....	790	Massachusetts.....	1764	New York.....	2952
Georgia.....	656	Michigan.....	1228	North Carolina.....	287
Idaho.....	128	Minnesota.....	519	North Dakota.....	52

Ohio.....	2956	South Dakota.....	50	Washington.....	445
Oklahoma.....	558	Tennessee.....	886	West Virginia.....	401
Oregon.....	121	Texas.....	1968	Wisconsin.....	269
Pennsylvania.....	2351	Utah.....	179	Wyoming.....	46
Rhode Island.....	185	Vermont.....	170
South Carolina.....	61	Virginia.....	551	Total.....	32,186

To secure an estimate of the "Davis population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

(a)		Multiply by
Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted.....		2
Half of the Davises reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....		2
There are an average of more than four persons in each American family.....		4
Since Davis daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Davis sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Davis (though it is much easier to locate the latter).....		2
By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of.....		32
Conservative estimate of the Davis population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Davis and one-half of whom bear other names.....		1,029,952

The estimated Davis population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are Davises in every state of the Union. The Davis population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE DAVISES

For several centuries the Davises lived in North Ireland and England. Most of the British (with the exception of those living in South Ireland), and, likewise, the Davises were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Davises of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed two per cent of the entire Davis population.

The Davises who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Davises in America who are church members, at least ninety-three per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of one hundred sixteen Davises appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: BAPTIST, 10; CONGREGATIONALIST, 7; DUTCH REFORM, 1; EPISCO-

PAL, 12; METHODIST, 7; METHODIST EPISCOPAL, 2; PRESBYTERIAN, 7; ROMAN CATHOLIC, 1; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 7; RELIGION NOT STATED, 62.

AMERICAN HISTORICAL-GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY*

*Compiled by
J. MONTGOMERY SEAVER, Genealogist*

The contents are similar in all of these books. The larger ones contain more detail, especially on the American families. All of them contain the family Coat of Arms.

Hand-paintings of the Coats of Arms, and stationery with the Coats of Arms die-stamped in gold, can be furnished on each of these families.
