PREFACE

This third volume of American Fuller Genealogy contains genealogical data concerning descendants of Captain Matthew Fuller, John Fuller of Newton, John Fuller of Lynn, John Fuller of Ipswich, and Robert Fuller of Dorchester and Dedham, immigrants who came to America before 1650.

By correspondence with descendants; from items found in published family genealogies; and from examination of unpublished records, these genealogical lines have been extended from certain sources of information used as a basis, to the extent shown in the following pages.

These sources were, in general, the manuscripts of Prof. H. W. Brainard of Hartford, Ct., Jackson's History, and the published and unpublished vital records of Newton, the vital records of Lynn, of Ipswich, and those of Dorchester and Dedham.

The compiler feels quite sure that in a work of so much detail, there must be many errors, but hopes by careful attention given to have reduced them to the least that could be expected.

The writer takes this opportunity to thank all those who have helped in any way the preparation of this volume.

Supplements to Vols. I and II contain much additional information, and research workers should not fail to examine them.

AMERICAN FULLER GENEALOGY.

CAPTAIN MATTHEW FULLER LINE.

MATTHEW[1] FULLER, b. —— in England; d. in Barnstable, Aug., 1678; m. ——, Frances ——; b.——, in England; d.—— in Barnstable.

MATTHEW[1] FULLER probably b. 1603 in Redenhall Parish, in Harleston, Norfolk Co., England, came to America and settled in Plymouth, in 1640.

At this time he was married, and a parent. Of his early history, little is known, but he was doubtless acquiring the knowledge of surgery and military affairs which he afterwards put to good use. In April, 1642, ten acres of land were granted him in Plymouth, and in the same year he was juryman and propounded freeman of the Colony, but was not sworn and admitted until June 7, 1653. In 1643, he was appointed sergeant in the military company of the Colony, of which Miles Standish was captain. About 1650, he removed to Barnstable. In 1653, he represented that town in the Colony Court, and was already lieutenant of the militia there. June 20, 1654, he was appointed lieutenant under Capt. Standish of the Company of fifty men, the quota of Plymouth Colony, in the proposed expedition against the Dutch at Manhattan. All preparations had been made, when news of peace arrived and further service became unnecessary. Oct. 2, 1658, he was elected one of the Council of War, and in 1671 its chairman, and one of the magistrates of the Colony, and in the same year lieutenant of the forces to be sent against the Saconet Indians. Dec. 17, 1673, he was appointed Surgeon-General of the Colony troops, and also of those of Massachusetts, if that Colony approved. For this service he was allowed 4 shillings a day. In King Phillip's War he was captain of the Plymouth forces. In the Quaker controversy, Capt. Fuller took a noble stand in favor of religious toleration. He lived near neighbors to some of the most prominent of the Quakers, and was connected by marriage alliances with some who felt the severity of the laws passed against the sect. He went so far as to censure this law in strong terms in public. For this he was fined by the magistrates. Though indiscreet in speech, the court continued to confer offices of trust and honor upon him,—a most unusual course which shows that his honor and bravery were never doubted. In his public and private life he was a man of sound judgment, of good understanding, faithful in performance of duty, liberal in politics, tolerant in religion. Captain Fuller was also the first regular physician settled in Barnstable. His homestead was in the northwest corner of Barnstable, at Scorton Neck. He also possessed large tracts in Falmouth and Middleboro, granted for the eminent services he had rendered the Colony. His will was dated July 25, 1678, and was proved Oct. 30th following. His estate was appraised at £1667,04,06, a very large amount for those times. Among the items is the following: "Pearls, precious stones and diamonds, at a guess, £200."

Inventory dated Aug. 22, 1676. £1677,04,06.

Barnstable Probate Rec.

Children:

2. Mary[2], b. about 1625; m. April 17, 1650*, Ralph Jones, the Quaker, of Barnstable; many descendants. She probably died before 1691, for she is not mentioned in Jones' will of 11th of 3rd month, 1691.

See Vol. 1, p. 38 "Some descendants of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower." The second marriage is proved by the wills of Joseph[4] and Thankful Fuller, his wife.

The latter will—dated Aug. 13, 1757—names Grandson Seth Fuller, who is to pay his mother, Mercy Fuller, a certain legacy.

This Benjamin Fuller was a Lieutenant, and is called Junior, to distinguish him from Benjamin[4] Fuller, (Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Edward[1]).

Children: born in Barnstable.

FIFTH GENERATION.

3. Thomas[5] Fuller, (Benjamin[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Matthew[1]), b. Jan. 18, 1718, in Barnstable; d. March 6, 1780, aged 63 years? (see note*) (a record in the church records of Westchester (town of Colchester), Ct., giving the above date of death probably refers to this Thomas Fuller, or to his wife. Since the first name is omitted in the original record, we cannot be sure); m. Nov. 10, 1741, at Middle Haddam, Ct., Elizabeth Arnold, b. Jan. 26, 1716-17, in Haddam, Ct.; d. ——; dau. of Dr. Joshua and Elizabeth Arnold, of Haddam, Ct. Thomas Fuller lived in Westchester parish from his marriage until about 1745; in Barnstable 1746-1750; then in East Haddam, Hadlyme parish, until about 1755; finally in Westchester again. His wife was a church member in all these places. The above is from H. W. Brainard's Mss.—In the N. Y. Record Oct., 1903, Brainard says he lost trace of them in Westchester, not finding any further notice of them.

    Note—In the published Vital Records of the town of Lee, there are records of the death of a Thomas Fuller "Sept. 24, 1808 a. 90 (a. 90 y—3 mos C. R.) (husb. Lucy, G. R.)" and "Lucy, wid. Thomas Fuller, d. Sept. 26, 1824, a. 89."

    There is no further mention of them in these vital records of Lee. It appears they were members of the Lee Cong. Church; "Joined on profession;" were received July 14, 1793, and died members of that church. Nothing further shown in Ch. records. The Lee U. S. census of 1790 mentions this family as residing in Lee. It has occurred to the compiler that it may have been Thomas Fuller's wife Elizabeth, who died March 6, 1780, a. 63; that Thomas removed to Lee, when his daughter Hannah was probably living, and married for second wife, before 1790, Lucy ——, who survived him.

10. Seth[5] Fuller, (Benjamin[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Matthew[1]), b. March 14, 1736-7, in Barnstable; d. ——; m. Oct. 15, 1759, at Barnstable, Deliverance Jones.

He removed—Otis says, to Kennebec, Maine.

He was living in 1787 as a deed (Barnstable recopied deeds) proves—"Seth Fuller and Deliverance his wife, formerly of Barnstable, to Jonathan Bodfish."

This was a deed of one half of the farm of Joseph Fuller, deceased, who was his grandfather, on his mother's side. She was Mercy[5] Fuller (Joseph[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Edward[1]). See Vol. 1, p. 38 "Some Descendants of Edward Fuller of the Mayflower."

Children—the first two recorded in Barnstable.

19. Hannah[6], b. April 10, 1766.

In 1855, Polly Fuller was living in Danbury, N. H., 75 years of age. In 1828, Lemuel Fuller was 70 years old, his wife, Polly, 49, dau. Polly, 8, and dau. Hannah, 6 years of age. His dau.? Mary D. lived in Alexandria, N. H., in 1852.

Lemuel Fuller enlisted in the Revolutionary army Nov. 28, 1775, for 1 year in Ct., in Capt. Joseph Jewett's Co., Col. Jedediah Huntington Regt.; served until Jan. 1, 1777.

The U. S. Pension records—from which most of the above was taken —call him "of Hanover, N. H."

The town clerk of Bradford, Vt., who furnishes the above items in regard to Lemuel's first wife, makes the following statements in regard to Lemuel Fuller and his family: "land was deeded to Lemuel Fuller, Sept. 16, 1786, and his residence was given as Piermont, N. H., and the consideration was 450 bushels of wheat. In 1792, he was deeded land by the committee appointed by the Legislature, and his residence was given as Bradford, Vt." He gives date of death of Lemuel's wife, "Dec. 6, 1816," and again "Dec. 11, 1816, aged 54 years," but does not find Lemuel's death record.

He gives record of Lemuel's children as follows:

6. Gibbs[6], b. Feb. 21, 1786.
7. Pheba[6], b. Aug. 24, 1791.

JOHN[1] FULLER, of NEWTON,

AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

AMERICAN FULLER GENEALOGY.

JOHN[1] FULLER OF NEWTON AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

JOHN[1] FULLER, one of the first settlers of Cambridge Village, was born in England in 1611, came to America about 1635, and settled in Cambridge Village—now called Newton—about 1644.

Newton was established as a town in 1691, and in 1873 was incorporated as a city.

In December, 1658, John[1] Fuller bought 750 acres of land for about $1.00 per acre, the tract being bounded on the north and west by Charles River. Later he increased his holdings to upwards of 1,000 acres, and became one of the two largest land owners in the village. His tract was long known as the "Fuller Farm."

He divided his land among his children in his lifetime, confirming the division by his will, with the proviso that they should not sell to any stranger, until they, or their next relation, should have the offer of it. Twenty-two of his descendants, it is said, went into the army of the Revolution. Pope in his "Pioneers of Massachusetts" says he was a farmer and a maltster.

He made his will in 1696, and died "Feb. 7, 1697-8, aged 87," according to his gravestone record.

His wife's name was Elizabeth ——. She d. Apr. 13, 1700.

6. HEZEKIAH[5] FULLER (William[4], James[3], John[2], John[1]), b. Nov. 25, 1747; d. ——; m. ——, Tryphena Lamkin.

The History of Union, Ct., states that Hezekiah Fuller lived in Lancaster, N. H.

The History of Lancaster, N. H., states that Hezekiah Fuller leased a mill there in 1773, and that he was carried away by Indians in 1779.

Volume 12 of Town Papers of N. H. mentions Hezekiah Fuller as a signer of a road petition in 1778 and Volume 13 as a signer of a petition in Stratford, N. H., in 1791.

The U. S. Census of 1790 mentions no Fuller families in Lancaster, but gives 12 persons in the family of Hezekiah Fuller of Stratford. Records of deeds in Lancaster show dealings in lands in Stratford by Hezekiah, and by Luther Fuller of Brunswick, Orange Co., Vt.

Hammond's "Town Papers of New Hampshire," referring to a petition by 12 signers in Lancaster, asking the authorities for assistance on account of an Indian raid and their capture of two men, says "the two men referred to were Joseph Barlow and Hezekiah Fuller." What disposition their captors made of them we do not know. Their names figure in business transactions at a subsequent date, from which we may infer that they either escaped or were ransomed. It was a matter of frequent occurrence for towns to pay the ransom of such captures.

The Berlin (N. H.) "Independent" of Feb. 16, 1898, printed portions of an address including mention of the family of Hezekiah Fuller and Tryphena Lamkin as follows:

"Hezekiah and Luther, sons of William, settled in Stratford, N. H., Hezekiah where his grandson, William G. Fuller, now lives. We place Mr. Fuller here since the members of his family are descendants of Joshua Lamkin.

8. Amos[4] Fuller, (Jonathan[3], John[2], John[1]), b. Feb. 7, 1738, in Newton; d. ——.

He is probably the Amos Fuller of Marlboro, Mass. who m. Mar. 25, 1762, Mary Cooledge, as given in Bailey's "Early Mass. Marriages" and also in the Bolton vital records, which last gives also the dates of birth of the 5 children of Amos and Mary mentioned below.

Mass. "Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolution," mentions Amos of Bolton in the service.

The U. S. Census, 1790, mentions Amos Fuller family of 7 with a son over 16 years of age, and 4 daughters, in Boylston, Mass.

The Boylston vital records, by Rice, gives date of death of Rachel, dau. of Amos and Mary Fuller—the date of death of a Mrs.? Hannah Fuller, and the date of marriage of a Molly Fuller. Hence it is probable that Amos removed after 1774 to Boylston, with all of his family.

Children, all born in Bolton, Mass:

29. Hannah[5], b. Oct. 7, 1762; d. in Boylston, Aug. 27, 1839, aged 77.

SOME DESCENDANTS

JOHN FULLER of LYNN

AMERICAN FULLER GENEALOGY.

SOME DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FULLER OF LYNN.

"John Fuller of Lynn came to Boston in 1630." (H. W. Brainard's Mss.) Pope in his "Pioneers of Massachusetts" says John Fuller, joiner, Boston, bought land in Lynn, 9 (6) 1639, to be paid for by Edward Fuller of Olney, Bucks, England, and refers to will of Edward Fuller, probated Sept. 20, 1656. Pope also states that John testified in a case in Salem, 25 (2) 1651, aged 30 years. Brainard's Mss. states that John Fuller was Representative from Lynn in 1655, and again in 1674-1678; was Lieutenant in King Phillip's war, and refers to the Essex Historical Collections, Vol. 6, and the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 50, as his authorities.

The published Vital Records of Lynn give date of his death Apr. 6, 1695, and his marriage in 1646 to Elizabeth Farrington, b. 1627, dau. of Edward Farrington, b. 1588, in Olney, England.

JOHN FULLER of IPSWICH,

AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

AMERICAN FULLER GENEALOGY.

JOHN FULLER OF IPSWICH AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

John[1] Fuller, aged about 15 years, came to America on the ship Abigail, May 4, 1635, from England, with his brother William, aged about 25 years.

William Fuller, according to Pope's "Pioneers of Massachusetts," "settled in Ipswich; proprietor in 1635; appointed gunsmith by the General Court in 1637; married 1639; sold house and land 1639; removed to Concord; from June 2, 1641, kept the mill; child Hannah b. 8 (6) 1641; wife Elizabeth d. 24 (5) 1642. Perhaps he is the William Fuller, locksmith, who bought land at Hampton 9 (12) 1647."

Other authorities call him "William of Hampton" and state that he died childless.

John settled in Ipswich and married Elizabeth Emerson, daughter of Thomas Emerson, who came to America in 1638, settled in Ipswich, and died there May 1, 1681, aged 81.

John[1] Fuller removed to Salisbury about 1639, but returned to Ipswich before 1648, and was town surveyor in 1663; commissioner in 1664, and owned land near Rocky Hill. He died June 4, 1666, at Ipswich, and his widow married, between 1666 and 1672, Thomas Perrin. His will was proved Sept. 25, 1666, and names sons John and William, "who have been sufficiently supplied by their uncle," daughters Susannah and Elizabeth,—"their grandfather hath early given them a portion"; names wife, sons James, Thomas, Nathaniel, Joseph, daughter Sarah, and a child unborn, to have one seventh each, with wife and son James as executors.

2. John[2], b. about 1643; m. Rachel Brabrick.
3. William[2], b. after 1645; m. Susannah (Perkins) Boswell.

Both the above were living in Hampton in 1689, when the estate of their brother Thomas was settled.

4. James[2], b. about 1647; m. Mary Ring.
5. Thomas[2], b. ——; d. unmarried 1689; estate settled Sept. 24, 1689.
6. Susannah[2], b. Aug. 4, 1650, m. Oct. 26, 1671, William Story.
7. Elizabeth[2], b. May 31, 1652; d. June 30, 1715; m. Mar. 23, 1672, James King, b. in England.
8. Joseph[2], b. ——, 1658; m. Mary Wood.
9. Sarah[2], b. ——; m. Nov., 1679, Nathaniel Hovey.
10. Nathaniel[2], b. Jan., 1663; m. Mary Jackson.

SECOND GENERATION.

John[2] Fuller, (John[1]), b. about 1643, in Ipswich; d. about 1719; m. Rachel Brabrick, probably daughter of John Brabrick.

He probably settled in Hampton, N. H.

Vol. 1, p. 415, "Provincial Papers of N. H.," mentions John Fuller of Hampton, bound in the sum of £100, that Rachel, his wife, appear on account of witchcraft, 1680.

13. David[4], b. Oct. 5, 1777; m. Sally Childs.

FOURTH GENERATION.

6. Joseph[3] Fuller, (Jacob[2], Joseph[2], John[1]), b. May 3, 1746, in Lisbon, Ct., according to family history removed to Providence, R. I., and I suppose that the Deacon Joseph Fuller who died there May 3, 1822, aged 76, is identical with the Joseph[3] Fuller above mentioned.

The R. I. Vital Records mention that "Mrs. Priscilla Fuller, wife of Dea. Joseph Fuller, died in Providence, Apr. 7, 1815, aged 71," and also mention the marriage of Dea. Joseph Fuller and Mrs. Ann Walker, in Providence, June 19, 1817, by Rev. Mr. Osborne.

Dea. Joseph Fuller was a Trustee of the Chestnut St. M. E. Church from Jan. 2, 1819, to May 3, 1822, date of his decease.

Vol. 18 of Arnold's V. R. of R. I. states that Dea. Joseph Fuller was second in command in the battle of Rhode Island.

"The Gazettee" of Providence, Saturday morning, May 4, 1822, gives an obituary notice as follows: "Died, in this town, yesterday morning, the day that ended his 76th year, Mr. Joseph Fuller, who, for more than 60 years has been a follower of the meek and lowly Jesus, and for many years deacon and father of a church in this town.

"He bore a long and distressing sickness with Christian patience, and died in the assurance of entering into that rest which remains for the children of God.

"The friends of the deceased are requested to meet at his late residence in Westminster St. at half past two o'clock tomorrow, from whence his remains will be carried to the Methodist Chapel, where a discourse will be delivered on the occasion."

"The Gazette" of May 18, 1822, contains an auctioneer's notice of sale, the same day, at the late residence of Mr. Joseph Fuller in Westminster St. of furniture, tools, and stock of a tool maker's shop.

Children: I find no mention of children born to Dea. Joseph Fuller, but a letter to Prof. H. W. Brainard of Hartford from a N. Y. genealogical correspondent, dated Mar. 22, 1904, says: "A brother of my grandfather was adopted by Dea. Joseph Fuller of Providence, R. I., and changed his name from Joseph Field to Joseph Fuller."

It seems quite probable that the Joseph Fuller, Jr., who was married Sept. 30, 1794, in Providence, by Elder James Wilson of the Beneficent Congregational Church to Lucy Potter was this adopted son, and also that the Abby P. Fuller, "only daughter of Joseph Fuller," who was married Aug 22, 1816, by the same Elder, in the same place, to Anthony B. Arnold, was the granddaughter of Dea. Joseph[4] Fuller by his adopted son.

DORCHESTER AND DEDHAM,

AMERICAN FULLER GENEALOGY.

ROBERT FULLER OF DORCHESTER AND DEDHAM, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

Not much information has been found concerning the early history of Robert Fuller, of Dorchester.

Pope in his "Pioneers of Massachusetts," says Robert Fuller was in "Dorchester in 1640; removed to Dedham; he and his wife received to church from Dorchester 19 (11) 1648." (Second wife). "Wife's name Ann ——. Wife d. 4 (5), 1646?; m. 2, Sarah ——, who d. 2 (4), 1686. He d. Dec. 14, 1688. Will probated Apr. 28, 1690. Bequests to grandchildren John and Prudence Ranger; to son Jonathan and daughter Mary Richards."

The "History of Dorchester," says he probably came to America during the "second emigration" so called, a passenger on one of the four vessels that came to America between 1635 and 1640.

Children, recorded in Dorchester and Dedham.

1. Jonathan[2], b. June 15, 1643; m. ——, Mary ——.
