INTRODUCTION.

IN gathering material for his "Genealogical History of the Hoyt, Haight, and Hight Families," and in tracing his own ancestry in other lines, the compiler of these records collected a mass of materials which it seemed desirable to preserve in some form more durable than manuscript notes. In order to give some degree of completeness to the work, he has attempted to include all Salisbury and Amesbury names that could be obtained from any accessible source, down to about the year 1700,—the first three or four generations of the early settlers.

It would be a comparatively easy task to copy and print the early town records of births, marriages, and deaths, down to 1700; but, while all these have been included, much more has been attempted, as will be seen in the records printed in this volume. After the town records, probate records and deeds are the main reliance, though other court records, church records, old journals and letters, are often of great importance in completing the account of some family.

The early families of Salisbury and Amesbury were so related to those of surrounding towns that it was found impossible to give anything like a full and connected outline of the former without including many early families of Newbury, Haverhill, Ipswich, and Hampton. The latter will therefore appear with the former, in alphabetic order.

One who has never attempted the task of preparing a genealogy has no idea of the amount of time and labor often required to prove the truth of a statement that may occupy but a single line. The genealogist must often ponder a problem for months, and even years, before the true solution is found; sometimes the missing fact turns up in the most unexpected way; sometimes it is never found, as the required records are wanting. It was at first intended to call attention to all errors found in printed genealogies of the families here given; but that plan was soon abandoned as impracticable in the space available. Only the most important have been noted. One source of errors in dates is the fact that persons unused to such researches often call the "1st month" of the old records January, instead of March, as it should be given. The fact that the year usually began March 25 instead of January 1, is another source of confusion. In every case of doubt, it has been the endeavor to consult and follow the original record, if possible. When, therefore, the records here given do not agree with those heretofore published, they should not be considered incorrect without consulting the originals. In many cases, errors have been found in official copies, some of them quite ancient. No one who has had experience in such matters would venture to say that there are no errors in this volume; but it is hoped that they will not be found numerous.

This work is not intended to be a complete history, even of the early generations of the families included. It proposes to give only the bare outline of essential facts. Other persons can build upon this foundation, and fill in the details of each family history, in separate volumes, where it has not already been done. One is strongly tempted to dwell upon the life of a first settler like Bailey; the forests; the first paths and roads; the fish weirs; the ship-building; the early churches and their pastors; the Indian conflicts and those persons who figured therein; the early mills of Osgood, Morrill, Currier, and others, prophetic of the later development along the Powow river; the witchcraft delusion with which the Martins, Bradburys, Morses, and Pike were concerned; the persecutions of Quakers, Baptists, and others that did not conform to the strict rules of the standing order, like Macy, Peasley, Goodale, and Pike; the places and persons immortalized by Whit-tier's pen ; — but both space and plan forbid. We can only remark that there lived in this region men of strong character and liberal sentiments, in advance of their time, as the records prove.

One who would write a correct and complete genealogy of the early Puritan families must endeavor to live among them, to learn their mode of thinking and acting, what removals they would be likely to make, or alliances by marriage, often so closely related to removals. The same impulse which caused them to leave their homes in Old England seems to have led many of them to change their residence in New England, and share in the founding of different settlements, like their descendants of this century in the West. This is illustrated in the history of William Sargent, and many others. The movement of the first generations was along the sea coast and up the Merrimac valley. Some of the next generations moved further along these lines into New Hampshire and Maine. There was, however, some movement towards the south and west. Salisbury was evidently the headquarters for the settlement of Nantucket ; and some families from this region removed to Block Island, Hartford and other Connecticut towns, western Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Often the introduction of a new surname into Amesbury or Salisbury was caused by the marriage of a young man from some other town to the daughter or granddaughter of one of the original settlers.

One is often surprised to find how constant and frequent was the intercourse between different towns of New England in those early days ; and visits to Old England were not infrequent with the first generation, as in the case of John Wheelwright, William Hooke, Robert Pike, John Eaton, Robert Ring, and others. It is also a matter of surprise that so many of the first settlers, — Francis Dow, Thomas Dummer, Samuel Groom, John Hall, Samuel Hall, John Hodges, John Sauders, and others, — returned to England and spent the remainder of their days there.

The desire of different towns to secure the services of skilled artisans often led to removals. Towns sometimes made offers of grants of land and other privileges which were not accepted by the grantees, and therefore do not prove a residence in those towns. Thus John Hoyt, brickmaker, received conditional offers of clay pits, etc., from Haverhill and Ipswich; but we have no proof that John Hoyt of Salisbury and Amesbury ever lived in those towns. Job Clement, tanner, of Haverhill, was offered a freehold in Newbury, but did not comply with the conditions, and soon afterwards removed to Dover. William Osgood, millwright, after working in other towns, received special privileges in both Salisbury and Amesbury, because his services were so much in demand.

Records of births, marriages and deaths are often wanting; the registry of deeds and the probate records do not contain the names of all residents; hence it is important to supplement these with information from other sources. Before commencing the genealogy proper, we shall therefore print all the important early lists of names and other original documents that we have been able to obtain, and upon which the subsequent work will, to some extent, be based.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., August, 1897.

SETTLEMENT OF SALISBURY.

From the "Records of Massachusetts," we find that, on petition of "Mr. Bradstreete, Mr. Dudley Jr., Capt. Dennison, Mr. Clarke of Newbury, Mr. Woodbridge, Mr. Battye [Batt], Mr. Batter, Mr. Winsley, Hen: Bilye, Giles Firman, Richard Kent, and John Sanders,"* permission "to begin a plantation at Merrimack" was granted them, Sept. 6, 1638, with power to add to their number. The plantation was named "Colechester," Sept. 4, 1639; name changed to "Salsbury," Oct. 7, 1640.

On the Salisbury records is found the following entry :

"1639, the third month.

"At a meeting at merrimack of Mr Simone Bradstreet, Mr Samuell Dudly, Mr Danniell Dennisonn, Cristopher Batt, Samuell Winsley, John Sanders:

"It was ordered that there shall be 2 divisions of Meadow, the one nerrer, the other farther, the nerrest shall haue fower Acres to Each 100^{li} [£], the other left to farther Consideration.

"It was further ordered that vpland for planting lotts shall be divided so as he that hath vnder 50^{li} shall haue 4 Acres, and he that hath aboue 50^{li} to 150^{li} shall haue 6 Acres, and all aboue shall haue 4 Acres to Euerie 100^{li}. "Allo, it was ordered that all lotts granted to singlemen are on Condition that they shall inhabit here before the 8 of may next, and such as haue families that they shall inhabit here before the last of october next."

The last clause strictly means October, 1639, though October of the next year may have been intended. The date of the "first division" of land is not given; but there are grants to four persons dated 1639, and many are dated 1640. The "first division"

* It will be seen that, of the twelve original petitioners and grantees, only five (Dudley, Batt, Winsley, Biley, and Sanders) received land and settled in Salisbury. Four of the twelve, Simon Bradstreet, Rev. Samuel Dudley, Daniel Denison, and Rev. John Woodbridge, belonged to the family of Gov. Thomas Dudley. Three of the others, Christopher Batt, Edmund Batter, and Henry Biley, were closely related, and all three came from Salisbury, Eng. Batter lived in Salem, Mass. Rev. Samuel Dudley afterwards married a sister of Henry Biley. Dr. John Clark, Rev. John Woodbridge, and Richard Kent, lived in Newbury, at that time. Giles Firman was of Boston, Ipswich, and Haverhill, returned to England about 1644, a physician and clergyman. Five or more of the twelve were from Wiltshire, Eng.—[N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., 1866 and 1871.]

was, therefore, in 1639, though some subsequent ones may have been recorded among the "first." The time of recording the grants, in their present form, is indicated by the vote, April 14, 1643, that all grants of land given by the "Towne of Salsbery" shall be recorded in the new book by the last of June next, allowing the clerk a penny for every grant so recorded, and 6^d for the copy of every man's particular grants, together.

The following is a copy of a paper found in the Massachusetts archives, Boston, without date, but indexed under 1639. The use of the name "Colchester" places the date of the original record between September, 1639, and October, 1640, unless the new settlement used the name before it was authorized by the General Court. The Salisbury records have the name "Merrimack" in May, 1639. The Boston copy must have been made after October, 1640, as it uses the name "Salisbury":

It is difficult to reconcile the above list with the following [p. 10], taken from the Salisbury records. On the Salisbury records, Carr, Morrill, Macy, Fitts, wid. Christian Brown, and perhaps Rowell, are not mentioned as participating in the "first division,"* though they all received land in 1640, and Macy in 1639. On the other hand, Allen, John Bayly, Jr., Barnard, Barnes, Buswell, Carter, Clough, Dickison, French, Goodale, Greenleaf, S. Hall, Hoyt, Ilsley, Ladd, Moyce, North, Parker, Partridge, and Wells are all given on the Salisbury records as receiving land in the "first division." John Clifford appears on the earlier list of thirty-seven, but not on the later list of sixty-nine. Lewis Hulett does not appear on either list, though Merrill assigns him a house lot in 1639, and his name appears later.

There is, perhaps, a geographical significance in the Boston list of thirty-seven. By referring to Merrill's map, History of Amesbury, it will be seen that all these lots were located on the "circular road," except those of Fuller, Macy, Rowell, and Brown. The list looks as if Fitts, Rowell, and Brown were added later, and wid. Brown may have first had the lot of her son Henry Brown on the "circular road." Macy's lot is given on the "road to the neck." This leaves only Fuller's lot on the straight piece of "beach road," and that lot is represented as lying some distance to the north of the road. It seems probable that the first lots laid out were all on the "circular road," except, perhaps, those of Fuller and Macy, and they either located away from others, or afterwards exchanged lots for those represented on the map. Later, in the same year, perhaps, the straight "beach road" connecting the two branches of the "circular road" was laid out, and most of the new comers were located on that road. The exceptions were John Bayly, Jr., who located next to his father, I. Buswell (probably not W. Buswell, as Merrill gives it), and Ladd on the "circular road;" French, Partridge and Wells on the "road to the neck," with Macy. All the above, over fifty persons, who probably received lots within a few weeks or months of each other, were placed on the new Salisbury book in 1643 as having part in the "first division."

* They all, doubtless, received land in the "first division," but may have failed to pay for recording their grants in the "new book."

FIRST SETTLERS OF SALISBURY.

The following is an exact copy of the original entries on the first leaf of one of the town's books of ancient records. It is evidently designed for an index to the records of land grants, the numbers referring to the pages where such grants are recorded, one page being originally assigned to each person. The marks of reference and note are added by us.

FIRST SETTLERS OF AMESBURY.

On the Amesbury records we find, dated March 19, 1654-5, the following list of the "present inhabitanc and comenors heare in the new towne."

"Richard Currier	William Barnes
George Marting	Vallentine Rowel
John Hoyt	Thomas Barnard
Philip Chalice	Anthony Colby
Thomas Macy	John Weed
William Huntington	Jarret Haddon
John Bayly	Edward Cottle
Henry Blasdale	[Orlando Bagly]*
John Colby	William Sargent"

After the above date, but previous to 1663, the following individuals also received grants of land: Joseph Peasley, James George, Nathan Gold, Samuel Foot, Walter Tayler, Robert Quinby, Edmund Elliot, Samuel Colby, William Osgood, and John Hoyt, Jr.

On a petition of the inhabitants of Salisbury new town, May 19, 1658, [Court files, Boston], we find seventeen names, the same that were given in 1654-5, except that John Bayly and Orlando Bagly are omitted, and Nathan Gould is added.

definite arrangement. The name of Tho. Bradbury stands first. We have arranged the names alphabetically. We fail to find among the signatures the names of the following: George Carr, John Clough, Josiah Cobham, John Cole, John Dickison, Edmund Elliot, John Gill, Andrew Greely, John Ilsley, Abraham Morrill, Robert Pike, Thomas Rowlandson, Dea. Richard Wells, Rev. William Worcester, and some younger men, all of whom we suppose to have been residents of Salisbury at that time, though three or four of them may possibly have been residing elsewhere in 1654. Samuel Hall was probably in England at that time. The Amesbury commoners all signed, except Orlando Bagly and John Colby, the latter a young man, whose father signed.

ADDITIONAL NAMES, SALISBURY, 1659.

Seventy-six names appear on the "Contry Rate" in 1659, including, besides most of those previously given, the following:

Sam. Buswell	Jno. Hoyt Jr.	Leif. Remington
Mr. Coffyn	Ben: Kimball	Sam. Robins
John Collby	Jno. Maxfield	Tho. Rolenson
Corne Conner	Rich. Ormsby	Morris Tucker
Jo: Fletcher	Joseph Peasley	Jno: Woodin
Nathan Gold	Jno. Pressie	Sam. Worcester
Ed. Gove	Rob. Quenby

On lists of lots in Salisbury in 1661 are the following names of persons who were then probably dead or non-resident: Henry Ambros, John Ayer Sen., Christopher Batt, Josiah Cobham, Francis Doue, Mr. Dūmer, Enoch Greenleaf, Goodman Harrison, John Hodges, Lewis Hulet, Joseph Parker, Daniel Peirce, and perhaps others. The case of Robert Ring against the town of Salisbury, involving the rights of non-resident commoners, was then pending in the courts.

SALISBURY PETITIONS OF 1658.

PURCHASE OF MR. HALL'S FARM.

Samuel Hall sold to the town of Salisbury, in 1657, his farm of 100 acres, "lying towards Hampton," which he bought of Samuel Dudley. On the Salisbury records, under date of 1665-6, and on the files of the Supreme Court, Boston, under date of 1674, we find lists of "Names of those that paid y^e purchase of Mr. Hall's farm, with each man's proportion," and "The no. of the lots in Mr. Hall's farm belonging to each person."

*Tho. Bradbury Jun. and Jno. Stevens Jr. are connected by a brace, with a joint tax of 0=08=10. As Mr. Bradbury immediately precedes them, perhaps the brace should connect the two Bradburys, with a joint tax of 3=01=6.

There are two lists, the first containing 53 names, with the tax of each person; the second, 48 names, with the number of each person's lot. The order of names in the two is entirely different, except that Mr. Worcester heads both lists. The two are here combined, and the arrangement made alphabetic. Where the spelling of the two differs, the first, or tax list is followed. On the second, or lot list, are "John Coles," "old Moys," "Capt. Pike," "Mr. Stanian," and Saml: Winsley." The names "Capt. Pike" and "Widow Morrill" imply that the second list was written at a later date than the first. Abraham Morrill died in 1662, and his widow married Thomas Mudgett in 1665.

SEPARATION OF AMESBURY FROM SALISBURY.

According to the agreement of 1654, the new town was to be formally separated from the old when it could secure and maintain a minister. Unsuccessful efforts were made in 1660 to obtain Mr. Shubael Dummer, and in 1665 to obtain Mr. Showell, Mr. Woodbridge, and Capt. Robert Pike, to serve the new town as minister. In 1666 the new town was incorporated by the General Court. The town voted to adopt the name Amesbury in 1667, and the name was confirmed by the General Court in 1668. Mr. Benjamin Woodbridge served as minister for two or three years, 1666-69. Mr. Hubberd,* or Hoberd, of Kittery, was minister, 1669-72. Rev. Thomas Wells, the first settled pastor, began his pastorate of sixty-two years in 1672 or '3.

Between 1654 and the formal separation, the two towns were distinct in matters pertaining to land, and some other town affairs; but the inhabitants of Amesbury were expected to attend divine service in the old town, and support its minister. This they often declined to do, and held meetings of their own, under

* Perhaps Rev. Jeremiah Hobart, or Hubbard, b. ab. 1620 or '32, who grad. H. C. 1650, was called from Lynn to Wells in 1667, but remained there only a few months. He was the son of Rev. Peter Hobart of Hingham, and brother of Rev. Joshua Hobart. Rev. Jer. Hobart was ordained and settled in Topsfield, Mass., Oct., 1672; settled in Hempstead, L. I., in 1683, and in Haddam, Ct., in 1691. He d. in 1715.

the lead of Peasley, Macy, and others, for which they were fined.*

AMESBURY COMMONERS IN 1667-8.†

Feb. 18, 1667-8, four sets of lots, 25 in each set, were drawn by the following persons :

Thomas Barnard, Sen.	Richard Currier	Robert Jones
Thomas Barnard, Jr.	Edmund Elliott	George Martin
William Barnes	Samuel Foot	William Osgood
Henry Blaisdell	James George	Robert Quenby
Lt. Philip Challis	Nathan Gould	Widow Rowell
John Colby	Jerrard Hadden	William Sargent
Isaac Colby	John Hoyt, Sen	John Weed
Edward Cottell	John Hoyt, Jr.	Goody Whitteridge
	William Huntington

Salisbury seems to have had about twice as many inhabitants as Amesbury, soon after the formal separation, say in 1670.

*As early as 1642, the town of Salisbury ordered that thirty families should remove to the west side of the Powow river [Amesbury] before May, 1645. In 1649, the inhabitants of the new town were unsuccessful in their petition to the General Court for "exemption from rates to the ministry of the old town," that they might sustain the ministry among themselves; and in 1658 they were again refused when they petitioned that they might be a distinct town.

† Supreme Court files, Boston, and Amesbury records. There were a few other owners of land in Amesbury at that time, as will appear from the preceding and following paragraphs. John Bailey, Samuel Colby, Thomas Haynes, Thomas Macy, Joseph Peasley, and Walter Taylor had owned land in Amesbury, and some of them probably still retained ownership, even if non-resident. Thomas Currier, John Nash [Ash], William Hackett, and most of the young men named on the list of meeting-house seats, either owned land and town rights in 1667, or acquired them soon after that date.

Persons might own land, obtained by purchase, without being "commoners." The "commoners" were the owners of all common or undivided land, and entitled to shares in any new division of that land. This point seems to have been involved in the suit of Robert Ring against the town of Salisbury. The term "townsman" seems to have meant a legally recognized inhabitant, entitled to participate in town affairs. He was generally a "commoner," also. "Township" was sometimes used in Amesbury to indicate prospective rights. Fathers were granted "townships" for their minor sons, and for their daughters, if they had no sons, thus conferring rights on the future husbands of those daughters.

Amesbury Meeting-house Seats, July, 1667.

All the men in the above list of commoners* and the following :

Joh Barber	John Pressy	Goodwife Currier
Thomas Fowler	Thomas Rowell	" Gould
James Freese	Thomas Sargent	" Jones
Edward Goodwin	Ezekiel Worthen	" Martin
William Hoyt	Goodwife Barnard	" Osgood
John Huntington	" Barnes	" Weed
Thomas Nichols	" Challis

Forty-two seats, as given by Merrill, and probably a few more, including all the principal men and a few women.

The list of thirty-six "voters and commoners" at the incorporation of Amesbury in 1666, as given in Merrill's History, is evidently intended to include all who had been voters from 1654 to 1666. Isaac Colby should perhaps be included, as he had not then removed to Haverhill. Samuel Colby was probably a resident of Haverhill in 1666. Anthony Colby had been dead six years, and his widow was the "Goody Whitteridge" mentioned among the lot-owners. Thomas Macy removed to Nantucket in 1659. Valentine Rowell died in 1662, and his widow is named among the lot-owners. Joseph Peasley Sen. died in 1660. Joseph Peasley Jr. was not of age in 1666. He was granted a "township" in Amesbury in 1660, but lived in Haverhill after he became of age. Thomas Currier was hardly of age, but was granted a "township" in 1666. The name Orlando Bagley does not appear on the list of seats or lots; nor have we seen it, on any original document, save one, as of Amesbury, prior to 1677. Probably Orlando² then took the oath of allegiance. John Bailey Sen. died in 1651, and his son John Jr. was a resident of Newbury in 1666. It is doubtful whether George Carr Jr. was a "voter and commoner" in Amesbury in 1666, though he was in 1670, or earlier. Thomas Haynes received grants of land in Amesbury in 1661, '66, and '75, and took the oath there in 1677, but his name is not on Merrill's list of "thirty-six," nor on the above lists of commoners and meeting-house seats.

* John Colby's name does not appear in Merrill's list of meeting-house seats, History of Amesbury; but he is probably one of the "few more," lost by the defacing of the original record.

The absence of Walter Taylor's name from the above lists of commoners and meeting-house seats is noticeable. He was made a "commoner" in 1659, received land in Amesbury in that year and in 1662, and was probably of Amesbury in 1680 and at his death, in 1686-7. His name appears somewhat frequently on the court records for "using cursing speeches" and other offences. He may have pursued his calling as a "shipwright" in various places. Edward Goodwin and William Hackett were granted common rights, and John Nash [Ash] and Thomas Nichols were made townsmen in Amesbury in 1667, and are properly excluded from Merrill's list of "thirty-six."

SALISBURY PETITION, 1677.*

NOTE. We have made the order of names of householders alphabetic, for convenience of reference. Thomas "Mugget" heads the original. The church members are given in the original order. The first five were old men living in Amesbury; the other seven lived in Salisbury.

* It must be remembered that the absence of a name in the case of a petition proves nothing, except that the person did not sign. In tax lists the case is different, though errors and omissions are common, even there.

The "Freemen," except Rev. Thomas Wells, were original settlers of both Salisbury and Amesbury, now old men, and doubtless "free" from training. Challis had been Lieutenant of the Salisbury company, and was appointed Lieutenant of the Amesbury company in June, 1680. John Hoyt, Sen., had been Sergeant.

EARLY RECORDS OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

The early town records of Salisbury have been preserved, and are tolerably complete. The record of births properly begins in 1639, though there are two entries dated 1637, and one 1638. The record of deaths begins in 1641, and of marriages in 1660. A copy of all these, not indexed, is deposited in the office of the Town Clerk of the present town of Amesbury. Another modern copy, indexed for names to 1844, is kept in the office of the Town Clerk of the present town of Salisbury. The Old Norfolk County records, now in the office of the Registry of Deeds, at Salem, give Salisbury births from 1639 to 1671, deaths from 1641 to 1673, and marriages from 1641 to 1672, with a modern copy. It will be seen that the record of marriages from 1641 to 1659 is found only at Salem; but there are in existence two ancient and three modern copies of records of births 1639 to 1671, deaths 1641 to 1673, and marriages 1660 to 1672*. These five copies are substantially the same, for these dates, with but slight variations. Fortunately, however, one of the two ancient copies sometimes supplies what is lost or illegible on the other.†

The original records of births, marriages, and deaths in Amesbury commence with the year 1686; and the modern copy in the office of the Town Clerk of Amesbury is indexed for names and dates. From the first settlement down to about 1667, the births, marriages, and deaths of Amesbury families were recorded on the Salisbury books, no distinction being made between Salisbury and Amesbury families. From the incorporation of the town of Amesbury, separate records of vital statistics were probably kept for that town; but they are now missing, on the Amesbury records, for the eighteen years from 1668 to 1685, inclusive. This break is partially filled by a few entries of Amesbury births, marriages, and deaths on the Old Norfolk County records at Salem for 1668 and

* There are also some later records of Salisbury and Amesbury births, marriages, and deaths before 1700, in another building, among the County Court Records, at Salem, but they are mostly duplicates of those found on the town books.

† The account of Salisbury Families, published by A. W. Brown in N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., 1853 and '54, is reasonably accurate, though there are some mistakes and omissions, sometimes of whole families, as the Rowells.

1669, and others for 1670-1676 on an ancient Norfolk County book in the office of the Town Clerk of Salisbury, of which no modern official copy has yet been made.* The record for nine years, 1677-1685, is entirely lost, so far as now appears, besides a few entries, about the year 1668, which seem to have dropped out between the different record books. The town record has but two marriages from 1690 to 1697 inclusive, though there are ten Amesbury marriages for 1693 recorded at Salem. It is this deficiency of records which makes it so difficult to obtain a complete genealogy of early Amesbury families. Recourse must be had to probate records, deeds, and other authentic documents; and much material must often be collected before even a single line of ancestry can be carried back to the first settlement.

Unfortunately, the earliest records of the churches, in both Salisbury and Amesbury, have been lost.

So many errors were found in Coffin's History of Newbury, that the town records have been examined, and most of the Newbury dates, for families included in this book, are taken from those records, preference being given to the oldest copy.

The earliest records of births, marriages, and deaths in Haverhill were written in chronological order, down to about 1664. At that time a new record was commenced, arranged by families. Many of the old entries were copied into this book, and a few errors were made in copying. We have endeavored to follow the oldest copy in which the date appears.

The Ipswich dates are mostly taken from the town records, which, unfortunately, are missing for the earliest years of the settlement.

The Hampton dates are mostly from Dow's History of Hampton, which seems to be quite full and accurate.

* In the same book are records of similar dates for Haverhill, Hampton, and Exeter; but most of the book is filled with records of the town of Salisbury, of later date, and this is doubtless the reason it has remained at Salisbury.

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS.

The letters in brackets after dates indicate the records from which the dates are taken.

The probate records are at Salem, unless otherwise specified. The first date given for a will is the date of the will itself, the second is the date of proof.

Under each surname, each individual is designated by a certain number. When the history of that person is resumed, the same number is repeated, in bold face figures; and when the same person is elsewhere referred to, the number is sometimes prefixed in parentheses, to identify the individual. The sign + indicates that the family record is continued in this volume.

Small figures after a Christian name designate the generation. Names in italics, placed in parentheses after a person's surname, indicate the ancestors of that person. The use of SMALL CAPITALS in printing a name in the record of a marriage shows that a further account of that person will be found in this volume, under that surname, in its proper place in the alphabetic arrangement.

The double date is given for the year, between January 1 and March 25, wherever it can be determined with any degree of certainty.

 3 II SARAH, b. —; m. April 5, 1681[S], JOHN MACK. + of Ip., decd.; no chil. of his own. Whitmore, in "Ayres Family," states that he had Sam., b. 1722-3, and three other children, all d. young. The age of Sam. renders the statement somewhat improbable.

NOTE. The Ayer and Ayres families were published by W. H. Whitmore in Hist. Gen. Reg., 1863 and '65; also in a separate volume of the "Ayres Family," especially that of Capt. John of Ipswich and Brookfield. His spelling of the surname is here followed, to distinguish the families.

* We have found it difficult to obtain proof that (1) Orlando Bagley lived in Amesbury at all. [See pp. 13, 19.] We have found no trace of his ancestry. There was a John Bagley in Salem who had children b. 1681-86; but we have no proof that he was related to Orlando. There was an Alice Baggerly member of Salem chh. 1687.

† Orlando and Sarah were the only children of Sarah (Colby) Bagley living in 1700 [div. est. Susanna (Colby) Whitridge.] We do not find either Sen. or Jun. used in connection with Orlando Bagley before (4) Orlando became of age. In 1712, (2) Orlando Sen. deeded land to his sons (4) Orlando Jun. and John. We have found no Bagley probate or deeds prior to 1700; Orlando without suffix in 1706, 1709, and 1710; Orlando Sen. in 1707; Orlando Jun. in 1711; in addition to the above.

^{*} Given "sister of John Emery, Sen.," by Coffin; but she was probably young enough to be sister of John Emery, Jr., and dau. of John Emery, Sen. This relationship corresponds with the term "bro.," used in the will of John¹ Bailey, Sen., meaning father of son's wife. Mrs. Christopher Batt was "sister of Abraham Toppan," in the same sense. Coffin has confounded the two John Emerys in the mar. to Wid. Webster.

Unclassified Records.

1 We find no James and Mary, chil. of Nathl. Bartlett, b. Dec., 1679, as given in C Nb.

2 Will of Richard Bartlett of Nb., Sept., 1747; Feb., 1749; ment. wife Susanna, sons Richard, Josiah, and Christopher, chil. of dau. Hannah Merrill decd., daus. Mary Hale, Judith Chase, Elizabeth Chase, and Margaret Platts.

3 Div. est. Richard Bartlett of Nb., Jan., 1754; chil. Enos, Benj., Nathl., Edmund Bayley and wife Abigail, Nathl. Cheney and wife Lydia, and Sarah Bartlett.

4 Will of Josiah Bartlett, "weaver," of Nb., Oct., 1745; Sept., 1746; wife Elizabeth; "3d chh. in Nb. to which I belong;" kinswoman Hannah Chase, wife of James Chase, "cordwainer," and her dau.; "my bros. and sisters, and chil. of them that are decd."

1 CHRISTOPHER¹ BATT, Mr., (Thomas), b. 1601-3, "tanner" and "gent.;" m. Oct. 12, 1629, Anne Bayton, in Eng. He was of Salisbury, Eng.; † freeman, 1639; first came to Newbury, but was one of the twelve original grantees of Salisbury; reed.

* An Anne Bartlet of A. m. Nov. 22, 1704[A], JOSEPH⁴ COLBY (John,³ John,² *Anthony*¹), of A. A Mary Bartlett m. May 30, 1700[Hv], John Stevens, Jr., 2d wife.

† The record states that he embarked at Southampton, 1638, aged 37, with wife Ann, 32, sister Dorothy, 20, and five children under 10 years old. This would give his birth 1601, and hers 1606; but the marriage record makes them both 26 in 1629. [G. R., 1893, p. 135]. Her age given in her will also makes her birth in 1603. The wife of Christopher Batt has been given "Ann Toppan, sister of Abraham Toppan." This error probably arose from the fact that Abraham Toppan's son mar. Ann Batt's daughter.

From the Biley will [p. 62], and other documents, it is evident that Christopher Batt and Henry Biley of both Salisburys were cousins. Thomas Batt, land there in the "first division," 1640, and 1642; was of S. in 1650, when he sold house and lot to Isaac and William Buswell; rem. to Boston in 1654, where he was accidentally shot by his own son, Aug. 10, 1661. Will 1656; Sept. 19, 1661; wife Ann and chil. ment., the latter not by name. Wid. Ann, b. 1603-6, was living in Boston in 1672; will March 14, May 21, 1678-9. He represented S. in the Gen. Court in 1640, '41, '43, and '50. Children: *

- 2 I CHRISTOPHER,² b. ab. 1630; of Dover, 1662; "eldest son" in 1679.
- 3 II ANN,² b. ab. 1631; m. June 12, 1657, Edmund Angier; liv. 1679.
- 4 III JANE,² b. ab. 1632; m. April 3, 1661[Nb], Dr. PETER² TOPPAN (*Abraham*¹), of Nb.; liv. 1679.
- 5 IV SAMUEL,² b. —; a "clergyman" in England in 1679, had son Samuel.³
- 6 V THOMAS,² b. —; a "tanner" in Boston; d. bef. 1679, leaving wife and dau. [at Watertown?]; adm. est. Feb. 20, 1678-9.
- 7 VI TIMOTHY,² b. —; a "tailor" in Boston; d. bef. 1679, leaving chil.; † adm. est. April 29, 1679.
- 8 VII JOHN,² b. March 4, 1641[S]; not ment. in mother's will.
- 9 VIII PAUL,² b. Feb. 18, 1642-3[S]; m. Sarah —; a "glazier" in Boston. Will July 8, July 26, 1678; wife Sarah, chil. Paul,³† and Sarah.³
- 10 IX BARNABAS,² [twin], b. Feb. 18, 1642-3[S]; adm. est. 1671, Boston.
- 11 X SARAH,² b. —; liv. 1679, name Batt.

- 14 XIII EBENEZER,² b. —; d. Aug. 16, 1685[C Nb]. An Ebenezer was ment. in Ann Batt's will, 1678-9.

gent., mar. — Biley, daughter of Henry Biley, the testator of 1633. Thomas Batt was dead in 1633. He left children: Christopher, b. 1601-3, as above. Thomas, b. —, m. Margaret Swayne, dau. of Bennett Swayne of New Sarum, and sister of Rebecca, wife of Henry Biley, the emigrant. Alice, b. ab. 1605; m. 1st, Rev. Peter Thacher in 1635; 2d, Francis Dove in 1641 [possibly Francis Dow of S. and Eng. ?]. Elizabeth, b. —; m. Richard Alwood, Jan., 1640-1. Margery. Mary. Dorothy, b. ab. 1618; came with her brother to America.

It appears that Nicholas Batt, an early settler of Nb., who had 3 daus., was not a bro. of Christopher.

John Hall, of London, in 1664-5, speaks of receiving a letter from Mrs. Batt, prob. wid. of Chris.; and in 1669 of "cosen Thomas Batt," perhaps the one in Eng.

* The order is uncertain for the births of some of the chil. Five seem to have been b. 1630-38.

Her son, Mr. John Hall, wrote to her the "Madame Rebekah Symonds" Letters, preserved in the collections of the American Antiquarian Society of Worcester, extracts from which were published in "Antiquarian Papers," Ipswich, Mass., 1883. [See Eaton.] Children :

* She would be only 15 yrs. old in 1668.

† Savage gives John Bickford of Dover [Oyster River, now Durham], in 1647; had sons John, Joseph, and Thomas. It is possible that Samuel was also a son of the first John; but we have found no proof of such relationship. Savage also states that the second John m. Temperance, and Thomas of Durham m. Bridget, both daus. of Wm. Furber. He gives 3 chil. of John and Temperance, b. 1660-1672; but at Exeter is a will of John Bickford, Sen., of Oyster River, Feb. 12, 1685; Oct. 7, 1697; which ment. wife Temperance, but no chil.; also a will of Thomas Bickford, 1706, which ment. wife Bridget and several chil.

‡ "Wm. Brown's wife" is canceled on the church list of 1687. She was insane for more than 30 years. According to the testimony of Wm. Brown at the witchcraft trial in 1692, Susanna Martin was, ab. 1660, accused of bewitching Brown's wife. "The church appointed a day of humiliation, to seek God in her behalf; and thereupon her trouble ceased . . . for which the church, instead of the day of humiliation, gave thanks for her deliverance. She came to meeting and went about her business as before." In April, ab. 1661, she and "goodwife Osgood" were summoned "to give their evidences concerning the said Martin . . . before the grand jury." Elizabeth Brown told her husband that Susanna Martin said "she would make her the miserablest creature for defaming her name at the court." About two months after this, Brown says, his wife "would not own him," "and from that time to this very day [30 years or more] she has been under a strange kind of distemper and frenzy, incapable of any rational action, though strong and healthy of body." On the strength of this and other evidence, Susanna Martin was convicted and executed as a witch. [See "The New Puritan," pp. 173-5].

* In it he ment. his "elder bro." Henry Brown of S., his bro. Wm. Brown of S., and some of their chil. and grandchil. Also his wife Han., her son Richard Hazen, adopted by him, and her dau. Sarah, wife of Daniel Wicomb, Jr., of Rw.

There was another George Brown, of Nb., who had a wife, but no child, when his will was written, May 26, 1642; pr. March 28, 1643. The date of his death given in C Nb. is evidently wrong. He ment. his bro. Richard of Nb.;

 4 III SARAH, b. Nov. 25, 1689[A].

1 GEORGE BURROUGHS* [BURROUGH or BURROWS], Rev., grad. H. C. 1670; had three wives. In 1680 his wife's name was Hannah; wife d. Sept., 1681, in Salem village. The mother of his younger chil. was Sarah, dau. of Thomas† Ruck and sister of Samuel Ruck, of Salem. Mr. Burroughs was adm. Roxbury chh. April 12, 1674; preached at Falmouth [Portland] in 1676, when the town was destroyed by Indians; was preaching in Salisbury in 1680; in Danvers [Salem village] in 1681 and '82; again at Falmouth in 1683; afterwards at Wells, 1690. He was tried at Salem for witchcraft, Aug. 3 or 5, and executed Aug. 19, 1692. One of the strongest points in the evidence against him was his great strength. [See Upham's "Salem Witchcraft," vol. 1, pp. 255-268, vol. 2, pp. 149-163, 296-304.] In the prob. office at Salem are some papers pertaining to his est., 1693 and 1701. Children:

 9 VIII JEREMIAH, b. 1680-'87; liv. 1701; insane.
 10 IX JOSIAH, b. 1680-'87; liv. 1701.

*Sv. thinks he was son of wid. Burrows, who came from Virginia to New Eng., and united with the Roxbury chh.

Some of the statements respecting the chil. of Geo. Burroughs, taken from Sv., are based on tradition. He states that Geo. and Thomas Burroughs, of Newburyport in 1774, were descendants of Rev. Geo. Burroughs. Upham speaks of descendants bearing the names Newman, Fowle, and Holbrook, as well as Fox, Thomas, and Burroughs.

† W Ch. says dau. of John Ruck and wid. of Wm. Hathorn, Jr.

‡ Charles, George, Jeremiah, and Josiah chose their uncle Sam. Ruck as guardian, in 1701. (3) George could not have been the son of Sarah Ruck.

Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury.

The undersigned has prepared a genealogy of the "OLD FAMILIES OF SALISBURY AND AMESBURY, MASS., WITH SOME RELATED FAMILIES OF NEWBURY, HAVERHILL, IPSWICH, and HAMPTON." The volume which is now ready for publication brings the record down to about the year 1700, including the first three or four generations of the early settlers. It not only contains all births, marriages, and deaths to be found on the town records, but all Salisbury and Amesbury names, from all accessible sources, down to 1700, arranged in alphabetical order.

Nearly 5,000 persons are arranged in families, bearing about 235 surnames. The following list includes only about one-half of these names, omitting most of those borne by the smallest number of persons. Names printed in small capitals represent the largest families included in the work.

ALLEN	EASTMAN	HUBBARD	PIKE
AYER	EATON	Hunt	Pressey
Bagley	Elliot	HUNTINGTON	Quinby
BAILEY	Emery	ILSLEY	RING
BARNARD	Fellows	Jewell	Rolf
BARTLETT	Fitts	Jones	ROWELL
Batt	Flanders	Joy	Rowlandson
Beedle	Foot	KELLY	Sanders
BLAISDELL	FOWLER	KIMBALL	SARGENT
Boynton	FRENCH	Ladd	Severance
BRADBURY	Fuller	Lancaster	Singletary
BROWN	Gage	Long	Somes
Buswell	George	Lowell	Stanwood
CARR	Getchell	Macy	STEVENS
Carter	Gill	MARCH	Stowers
CHALLIS	Goodale	Martin	TRUE
CHASE	Goodwin	MERRILL	Tucker
CLEMENT	Gould	MOODY	Tuxbury
CLOUGH	Greely	MORRILL	WEBSTER
COLBY	GREENLEAF	MORSE	WEED
Collins	Griffin	Nichols	WELLS
Connor	Hadley	Norton	WHEELER
Cottle	Hadlock	Ormsby	Whittier
Cotton	Harvey	OSGOOD	Williams
CURRIER	Healey	PAGE	Winsley
DAVIS	Heard	Parker	WOODMAN
Dow	HEATH	Partridge	Worcester
Downer	Hooke	Peasley	Worthen
Dudley	HOYT	Perkins	Younglove

Many of the above are not properly early Salisbury and Amesbury names, and may be omitted if it is found necessary to abridge the volume.

The first portion of the work contains many ancient lists of names and other original documents, which are introductory to the genealogy proper. Specimen pages of both portions of the work are sent with this circular.

The number of subscriptions received in response to the circular issued two years ago is so small that the author can not engage to print the whole at so great an expense to himself. It is, therefore, proposed to issue the work in parts, at $1.00 each. Part I will be issued as soon as a sufficient number of subscriptions have been received to pay the cost of printing that part. The number of pages included in it will depend upon the number of subscribers.

If the whole work can not be printed without too great a loss, the manuscript will be deposited in the library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, in Boston.

"Those who are interested in genealogy are beginning to recognize the fact that they should reckon their descent from many other families as well as the male line whose surname they bear, the number doubling with each generation as one reckons backwards. Many persons belonging to old Amesbury and Salisbury families are descended from twenty to fifty of the first settlers of this country, and the number would be two or three times as great if the same names were not reached in different lines by inter-marriage. A genealogy of this kind should interest not only those who now live in Amesbury, Merrimac, Salisbury, and vicinity, but also great numbers of families which have migrated from those towns to New Hampshire, Maine, and all the New England states; to New York and all the middle and western states, and even to Canada."—From Circular No. 1.

The undersigned has now on hand fifty copies of the "Genealogical History of the Hoyt, Haight, and Hight Families," 686+xii pages, published in 1871. They will, for the present, be sent to any address on receipt of $6.25 per copy by mail, or $6.00 by express. When these are disposed of, no more can be obtained.

Part One, 80 pages, of "The Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, with some Related Families of Newbury, Haverhill, Ipswich and Hampton," has been printed, and is now ready for delivery. The first thirty pages contain lists of names, and original documents not before published. The other fifty pages contain the genealogical records of families whose surnames commence with A and B. The whole work, when completed, will make five parts, of about 80 pages each, with full index in the last part.

It should be understood that the records are complete only for three or four generations of Salisbury and Amesbury families, down to the year 1700, so far as they can be obtained from accessible documents. The work contains, however, many records of families living in other towns; and many dates later than 1700, where they are needed to complete the history of a generation.

The subscriptions so far received will pay less than one-half the cost of printing Part One, to say nothing of the time and money expended in collecting and classifying information and preparing the manuscript. The other parts will not be published unless subscriptions enough are received to pay the cost of printing. It will require 200 cash subscriptions. The portion already published shows fully the character of the work, which has now progressed so far that definite terms are inserted in the appended subscription blank. Most of the subscriptions already received are limited to Part One. All who are interested in these records, and are willing to aid in securing their publication, are requested to fill out the blank, and return it at once to the subscriber, even if they have before subscribed.

[CIRCULAR NO. 4.]

Part Two, pages 81-160, of "The Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, with some Related Families of Newbury, Haverhill, Ipswich and Hampton," has been printed, and is now ready for delivery. It contains the genealogical records of the first three or four generations of families bearing the surnames CARR, CARTER, CHALLIS, CHASE, CLEMENT, CLOUGH, COLBY, CONNOR, COTTLE, CURRIER, DAVIS, DOW, DOWNER, EASTMAN, EATON, ELLIOT, EMERY, FELLOWS, FITTS, and FLANDERS; also briefer records of Clifford, Cobham, Codman, Coffin, Cole, Collins, Corliss, Cotton, Coy, Cushing, Dearing, Diamond, Dibbs, Dickison, Dove, Dudley, Dummer, Evans, Favor, Fawne, Fletcher, Darling, Eastow, Gouge, Haffield, and other names, a few of which seem to have become extinct in this country before 1700. This part of the book will be found to express views different from most of those heretofore published concerning Francis Dove, or Dow, the connection between the Baileys and the Emerys, the relationship of Elizabeth Hunt and Sarah Elliot to Jarrett Haddon, of Sarah Cottle-Hale to the Rolfes and Rings, etc.; and it is hoped that there will be a careful examination of the proofs presented.

Individual subscribers will confer a favor if they will remit payment at once, at the rate of $1.00 for each part, and consider the receipt of the book by mail a sufficient acknowledgment.

Only 500 sheets have been printed, and only 300 copies will be sent out in parts. When these are disposed of, no more can be obtained.

The undersigned has still on hand a few copies of the "Genealogical History of the Hoyt, Haight, and Hight Families," 686+xii pages, published in 1871. They will, for the present, be sent to any address on receipt of $6.25 per copy by mail, or $6.00 by express. When these are disposed of, no more can be obtained.

Part Three, pages 161-240, of "The Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, with some Related Families of Newbury, Haverhill, Ipswich and Hampton," has been printed, and is now ready for delivery. It contains the genealogical records of the first three or four generations of families bearing the surnames FOOT, FOWLER, FRENCH, GEORGE, GETCHELL, GILL, GOULD, GREELEY, GREENLEAF, GRIFFIN, HADLEY, HARVEY, HEALEY, HEARD, HEATH, HOOKE, HOYT, HUBBARD, HUNT, HUNTINGTON, ILSLEY, JAMESON, JEWELL, JONES, KELLY, KIMBALL, LADD, LANCASTER, LONG, LOWELL, MACY, and MARCH; also briefer records of Frame, Freese, Fuller, Gage, Goldsmith, Goldwyer, Goodale, Goodwin, Gove, Green, Guile, Hackett, Haddon, Hadlock, Hall, Harrison, Hastings, Hauxworth, Haynes, Hewes, Holdred, Horne, Joy, Kinsman, Large, Light, Mack, Mackrest, Martin, Gale, Graves, Groom, Groth, Hobbs, Hodges, Honchin, Honiwell, Huckley, Hulett, Hulton, Knowlton, Langden, and other names.

It will be seen that this part includes the Macy family, whose flight to Nantucket forms the subject of Whittier's poem, "The Exiles." Full lists of names connected with the purchase of that island are given. Susanna (North) Martin, who was executed as a witch in 1692, appears in this part, with her children. Her three daughters, Esther, Jane, and Abigail, had been married from twelve to twenty-two years in 1692; but these facts do not mar the beauty of the poet's picture of "Mabel," in "The Witch's Daughter."

Individual subscribers will confer a favor if they will remit payment at once, at the rate of $1.00 for each part, and consider the receipt of the book by mail a sufficient acknowledgment.

Only 500 sheets have been printed, and only 300 copies will be sent out in parts. When these are disposed of, no more can be obtained.

The undersigned has still on hand a few copies of the "Genealogical History of the Hoyt, Haight, and Hight Families," 686+xii pages, published in 1871. They will, for the present, be sent to any address on receipt of $6.25 per copy by mail, or $6.00 by express. When these are disposed of, no more can be obtained.

* The original will of (4) Samuel,² 1700, has a significant blank space between the mention of Robert³ and that of William,³ enough for one or two lines across the page, more space than Robert's single line. James is not called "5th son" where he is first mentioned, in the early part of the will. The person who wrote the will probably used that expression, based upon the will as it appears, James being the fifth son mentioned, with blank unfilled. Sam.³ and his father were prob. both living in Bradford in 1700; but Sam.³ was of Ames. in 1701.

Will June 24, Oct. 20, 1724, mentions wife Rose; chil. Joseph³ "mariner," Rachel,³ Thomas,³ John,³ Anne,³ Rose³ (unm.), Samuel³ and Zerubabel³ (two youngest sons); grandchild Jeremiah. The Joseph who left wid. Bethia and chil., 1682, but whose residence is not given, must belong to another family.

(17) TRISTEAM³ BARNARD m. RUTH³ MARTIN (John² Geo.¹)

(33) JOHN⁴ BARNAED, and note, p. 51. It was Capt. JONATHAN who d. in 1770, not John, as in one printed copy of inscription in A. cemetery. This makes date of birth [July 31, N. S., or July 20, O. S.] of (33) John incorrect. (42) JONATHAN⁴ may be the person; but, if so, there is an error of 1 y. 11 or 12 d., somewhere, after allowing for change of style. Probably he was 68 instead of 67 years old. The error of 11 days might have arisen from using July 19, N. S., for date of birth, and then, thinking it O. S., another 11 days might have been added, making it July 30.

(9) REBECCA² BARNES, b. ab. 1655; m. MOSES² MORRILL; d. April 3, 1727, in her 73d yr. [Ames. Union Cemetery.]

The Hist. Gen. Reg., Jan., 1898, has an article, continued from 1897, upon the "English Ancestry of the Families of Batt and Byley," including the pedigree of Nicholas Batt of Nb. Mr. HENRY BYLEY m. Rebecca Swayne in England, Jan. 21, 1632; chil.: WILLIAM, bp. Aug., 1633, [not given on p. 63]; REBECCA, bp. Dec. 8, 1636; HENRY, bp. Aug. 26, 1638. These articles also give dates of bp. of the chil. of CHRISTOPHER BATT who were b. in Eng.: ANNE, bp. Aug. 1, 1630; JANE, bp. Dec., 1631; CHRISTOPHER, bp. Sept. 22, 1633; THOMAS, bp. July, 1635; ELIZABETH, bp. Nov. 1, 1636; the first two at St. Edmund's, the last three at St. Martin's, Salis., Eng.

Another article in G. R., Jan., 1898, mentions TIMOTHY BATT, son of Timothy of Boston decd., and legacy left him by his grandmother Bayes of Martha's Vineyard, in March, 1696.

(3) THOMAS³ BEEDLE m. ELIZABETH GOULD (Nathan).

(9) ELIZABETH³ BLAISDELL may not have d. young. She may have been the wife of JOHN HUNTINGTON ment. in will of JARRETT HADDON, 1686-7. It has been assumed that she was Haddon's dau.; but neither the original will nor any official record mentions the relationship. The language is, "Elizabeth wife of John Huntington of A., in addition to what she hath already had of me." She is ment. just after the Blaisdell grandchildren, and just before Haddon's dau., Mary Blaisdell, their mother. Elizabeth Huntington had a child b. in 1687, and was apparently too young to be Haddon's dau.

Somerby found that GEORGE BROWN d. in Salisbury, Eng., in 1633, leaving wid. CHRISTIAN and sons HENRY, WILLIAM, GEORGE, and Abraham [A. W. Brown]. [See pp. 72, 75, 76.]

2 GEORGE¹ CARR, Mr., of Salisbury, "shipwright," received land in the "first division," in 1640, '41, and '44; and his name appears on most of the early lists. In 1662 he was to have a common right in A. when any of his sons came to live there, and he recd. land in A. in 1668. Mr. Geo. Carr was to keep the ferry at Ames., at Goodwin's Landing, April, 1670. * The Carr family seem to furnish the connection between Salem Village [Danvers] and Salisbury, in the witchcraft delusion of 1692. Mary Carr was the wife of the first Danvers minister. Her youngest sister, Ann, visited her and married Thomas Putnam, Jr., of Danvers. Both Ann Putnam and her husband were prominent in the witchcraft trials,—especially in that of Mrs. Bradbury, where other Carrs testified,—and both died in 1699. Their daughter Ann was one of the most active of the "afflicted children," or "accusing girls." She never married, and, when she was received to communion, in 1706, made a confession which is printed in Upham's "Salem Witchcraft," vol. 2, p. 510. Richard Carr and James Carr testified against Mrs. Bradbury; but William Carr testified in her favor. [Upham, vol. 2, pp. 229-237.]

1 PHILIP¹* CHALLIS, Lieut.,† [CHALLICE or CHELLIS], of Salisbury and Amesbury, "planter," b. ab. 1617; received land in the "first division," in 1640 and '44; was earlier at Ipswich, where he had house lot in 1637. His name is on most of the early S. and A. lists; rep. in 1662.‡ An original settler of Amesbury, where he recd. land in 1654, '58, '59 and later, "children's land" for his son in 1659, and a "township" for one of his sons in 1660; but he seems to have been a member of the S. chh. in 1677, as was his wid. in 1687. * He was called either "Philip Challis" or "Philip Watson Challis." His own signature was "Philip Challis" in 1671, and his name was thus given in deeds, 1650, '53, '59, '69, '73, etc.; but "Philip Watson Challis" was used in 1680. [See p. 23.] In the record of births, both forms are used. His widow styled herself "Mary Challis, widow of Lieut. Philip Watson Challis," in 1681 and 1683, "administratrix by order of the court." She sometimes apparently used "Watson-Challis" as a surname. In a deed, 1688, we find "Mary Challis alias Watson Challis, wid. and adm. est. Philip Challis, alias Watson Challis; and William Challis, alias Watson Challis, eldest son and heir of said Philip Watson Challis, both of A." Also "William Challis, alias Watson Challis," in 1693.

† He was chosen Lieut. of the foot company of S. in 1658, as certified by Serg. Hoyt and Serg. Stephens, in document in Mass. Archives. In June, 1680, he was discharged from the "foot company" of S., and ap. "leftenant to the military company at A."

‡ When the inhabitants of Salisbury, Hampton, Newbury, Haverhill, and Andover, petitioned the General Court to revoke the sentence against Robert Pike, the Court resented the matter so deeply that most of the signers apologized. Samuel Hall, Philip Challis, Joseph Fletcher, Andrew Greeley, and George Martin, of Salis.; John Emery, Sen., of Nb., and nine others, who insisted on the right of petition, had "not given satisfaction," and were, in 1654, required to give bonds and "answers for their offense before the County Courts." ["The New Puritan" prints "Hollis" and "Morton," which are evidently mistakes, and doubtless should be Hall and Martin, as here given.]

* It is certain from deeds that Sarah Osgood, b. 1652-3, was in 1700 and 1708 wife of (10) John³ Colby, and that she was dead in 1716. The only doubt is whether Sarah Eldridge and Sarah Osgood were the same person. The records may be reconciled in three ways: 1. Perhaps Eldridge should read Osgood. 2. Perhaps Sarah Osgood m. 1st, — Eldridge, of whom we have no other record, and 2d, John Colby. 3. The two may be distinct persons, as given above, which seems most probable, though we have no trace of the family of Sarah Eldridge. Wm. and Anne Eldred, or Eldredge, of Yarmouth, had dau. Sarah b. Oct. 10, 1650; but she was 6 yrs. older than John Colby, and we know of no intercourse between Salis. and Yarmouth. There was a John Eldred of Hampton in 1640, who apparently soon died or moved away.

* We have found no proof that Ezra was son of Edward; but there seems to be no other place in which to put him. There was a break in the S.-A. records in 1668. A Dorothy Cottle d. in Nantucket, Oct. 1, 1681[Sv].

† Sv. states that he was son of Edward of the city of Salis., Wilts, Eng., who d. June 15, 1653; but this is the exact date of the death of Edward, infant son of Edward of Salis., New Eng. The statement, "Wm., son of Edward of Salis., came to Nb." [ONb], if it refers to Salis., Mass., is entirely unreliable, as much so as that Ezra was son of Wm.

JOHN ROLFE?]* He came with John Rolfe in the "Confidence," 1638, aged 12, as servant of John Sanders, who m. Rolfe's dau. Hester. In the same ship were Robert Ring and several other S. and Nb. settlers. [See p. 111.] He d. April 30, 1668[Nb]; inv. est., Sep. 29, 1668. Wid. 26 III SUSANNA² [or JOANNA], b. Aug. 7, 1665[Nb]; liv. 1688.

27 IV WILLIAM,² b. Nov. 23, 1668[Nb], posthumous; liv. 1688.

* Documents at Salem prove that when John Rolfe of Salis. and Nb. came to this country, he left a dau. in Eng., who was wife of Richard Ring of Marlborough, Wilts. Rolfe's will, 1663-4, 2d item, refers to his dau. Hester Sanders, wife of John Sanders and her chil.; 3d, to Sarah Cottell, wife of William Cottell and her two children, Sarah C. and Ann C. [the only ones then born], to be improved by Wm. Cottl for their benefit, "in addition to what I have given her before;" 4th, to four Ring grandchil. then liv. in Eng. The will of Robert Ring, 1688, gave property to "Will. Cottle, son to Sarah, now wife of John Hale of Nb., and Joanna, dau. to said Sarah."

It has been assumed that Sarah Cottle was dau. of John Rolfe; but her age and other circumstances render it much more probable that she was his granddau. If she was the Sarah Hale, aged 33, who testified in the Caleb Powell case, in 1679-80[C Nb], she was b. ab. 1646 (or possibly a little earlier, as that would make her only 16 on the birth of her first child). The "Hale Genealogy," 1889, says she was prob. b. 1636. She was, therefore, 10 to 20 years younger than her husband. She was, also, probably the "Goody Hale" named in Wm. Morse's evidence in his wife's case, 1681[C Nb].

In view of all these facts, we venture to suggest that she may have been Sarah Ring, born in Eng., perhaps after the Rolfes came to this country, that Robert Ring (perhaps her uncle) brought the child over when he came to this country the second time, ab. 1652, where she was brought up in either the Rolfe-Sanders family or the Ring family. Her mother was evidently dead in 1663, and perhaps d. soon after her birth. C Nb. gives John Hale's third wife, Sarah Symonds; but the record is without date, and evidently not official. It has been suggested that she might have mar. and bur. a Symonds in the brief interval between 1668 and 1673; but it seems more probable that the Symonds story is an error, arising from the fact that a step-daughter of Deputy Gov. Samuel Symonds m. another John Hale.

† By John Hale she had 3 chil.: Joseph, b. Nov. 24, 1674, m. Mary Moody, 1699; Benj., b. Aug. 11, 1676, d. Aug. 31, 1677; and Moses, b. July 10, 1678, m. twice.

‡ One Nb. record says Wm. Titcomb m. Sarah, another says Ann Cottle. Some or all the chil., b. 1684-1702, are given as chil. of Ann. Possibly he m. both sisters.

RICHARD COY (or COYE), b. ab. 1625, was one of the townsmen of Salisbury in 1650; "disallowed," p. 11. Coffin says that Richard Coye came over with his bro. Matthew in 1638, the former 13, the latter 15 yrs. old; and their sister Mary, b. ab. 1612, mar. John Lake of Boston. Savage locates Richard Coy at Boston some years before and after 1650; gives his wife as Martha —; was of Brookfield in 1673; killed there by Indians, Aug. 2, 1675. Child:

He recd. land in S. in 1641 and '2; a commoner and taxed in 1650. His name heads one list of the first commoners of Ames., 1654-5, where he was town clerk after Macy, and received land in 1654, '58, '59, '62, '64, and '68. He and Macy were authorized to build a saw mill in 1656, and he owned a saw mill right in 1675. In the seating of the Ames. meeting house, 1667, his name stands first, "to set at the tabell;" but he was apparently a member of the S. chh. in 1677[p. 20]. He was evidently one of the most prominent men in the new town.* [M. Ames., pp. 108, 114.] Wife Ann d. after 1662,

* Richard Currier's name appears very frequently on the records of deeds, for he owned much real estate during his life. One deed of his, conveying real estate, was written in 1685, acknowledged the day of his death, and not recorded till 1709. His last days were spent at the house of his wife's son, Philip Rowell. So thoroughly had he given away his property, that there was no administration of his estate till about 25 years after his death. His grandson, Richard Currier, was ap. adm. Nov. 6, 1710; bond dated April 1, 1711; inv. and acct. March 26 and 28, 1712. Only one lot of land and his "common right" in Amesbury are entered.

A Richard Currier, prob. Rich.¹, though he was then nearly 60 yrs. old, was in the Narragansett war. His descendants drew land in Narragansett township No. 1, now Buxton, York Co., Me., on his original right, as a Nar. soldier. Feb., 1675, the constables of Marlboro', Sudbury, etc., were to care for billeting the Plymouth forces passing through the towns; and the constables of Lynn, etc., were to care for billeting the three Norfolk soldiers, Jno. Dickison, Richard Currier, and Tho. Mudgett for Abram Morrill, till they come to Salis. their home. [Mass. Archives.]

* Brown and Savage incorrectly give "Richard Currier, Sen., d. May 17, 1689." It was Richard Carr, Sen., of Salisbury, who died at that time, not Richard Currier of Amesbury. The latter was not called "Sen."

† The resemblance of family names, residence, and other circumstances, have suggested to many that Samuel² was either son or younger bro. of Richard¹; but diligent search has so far brought to light no record which proves relationship.

‡ Sv. is evidently wrong in giving a dau. Sarah who m. Sam. Fogg of Hm. The date given for m. Fogg is the same as that for Foot. See D Hm. for Fogg family.

§ The impression that there was a Richard,² son of Richard,¹ is based largely upon an error in copying Currier for Carr on the A. rec. [See p. 87.] There is no mention or intimation of a Richard, Jr., in A. Possibly (101) Richard of the Isles of Shoals may have been a son of Richard¹; but there is no proof, and little probability, that such was the case.

5 THOMAS² EATON (*John*¹), of Haverhill, m. 1st, Aug. 14, 1656[Hv], Martha Kent; 2d, Jan. 6, 1658-9[Sv], EUNICE² SINGLETARY (*Richard*¹) at And. Wife Martha d. March 1, 1657-8 [Hv]. He d. Dec. 15, 1708[Hv].|| Will March 11, 1701-2; July 4, 1708.|| Wid. Eunice d. Oct. 5, 1715[Hv]. Children:

* The earliest Eaton grants of land in S. were to his father, John Eaton, Sen. The John Eaton, commoner of 1650, was not "Sen." In his will, John¹ Sen., gave to his son John² "all my living in Salis.," and some land in Hv.

† He may have been in London in March, 1664-5, as JOHN² HALL (*John*¹) wrote to his mother that he had then accidentally met there John Eaton, and said, "I can discern the face of a N: E: man though he forget mine." Eaton told Hall the name of his "new brother" [Rev. John Hale], who lived in "Satto in N: E:." Hall quoted a saying of his "Late father Worcester," and seems to have sent the letter by Eaton. John¹ Eaton, Sen., was living in 1665, but was probably too old to make the voyage to London.

‡ The presence of the name of (9) John³ on the list of 1680, p. 22, indicates that he was b. bef. 1660. The S. records of births of this family from 1646 to 1663 seem to be complete, and his name stands first in his father's will, in 1682. He was probably, the oldest son; but the date of the birth of his youngest child [1710] indicates that he m., when forty years of age, a wife much younger than himself. He may have been away from S. in 1677-8, oath al. and fid., p. 21.

§ Samuel was about "to go on a voyage" in 1683. His father's will, 1682, gave him house and land which John² had of his "sister Wells," also land in Haverhill.

* John¹ speaks in his will of "my six children" and "grandchild Mary Emerson." As he calls Abraham Merrill (who m. his wife's dau.) his "son," Mary Emerson may have been the daughter of his wife's daughter Hannah, who married an Emerson. His wife had eight Webster children, who could not all have been included in the "six children." As he mentions only three chil. by name, Ebenezer, Jonathan, and John, besides Abram Merrill, the meaning of the expression "my six children" is not easy to determine, but we have given what seems the most probable interpretation. Ebenezer may have been the child of a 2d wife and Jonathan of a 3d.

1 JOHN¹ FULLER,‡ prob. b. ab. 1620, recd. land in Salisbury in the "first division," 1640 and '41; but his name is not on the NOTE.—(27) Joseph separated from (32) Joseph, and (22) Timothy from (33) Timothy, mainly by real estate records. (32) Joseph and (33) Timothy apparently lived in the "mills division," near Powow Hill.

* A Timothy, Sen., was soldier in 1703 in S., and a Timothy in 1710.

† She prob. had a bro. Matthew "Herriman," Jr., and a sister Eliz. who m. Thomas Gordon of Exeter.

‡ He was probably brother of William Fuller of Ipswich (1635) and Hampton (1640), who d. in 1693, and seems to have left no chil. Dow states that William Fuller came from Eng. in 1635, in the "Abigail," aged 25 yrs., with John Fuller, 15 yrs. Other records of age also make Wm. b. ab. 1610, and John ab. 1620.

The different John Fullers have often been confounded. The John of Lynn, 1644, rep. 1655 and '64[Sv], was doubtless a different person from the one of Ip. A John of Lynn was rep. 1674-8. A John, Sen., of Lynn, will Sep., 1693; list of 1650. He is prob. the one who was in Ipswich ab. 1637, and again in 1648; m. Elizabeth Emerson (Thomas); d. June 4, 1666[Ip]. Will proved Sep. 25, 1666; ment. wife and the following Children:

* It would appear from the set. est. (1) Andrew,¹ that (23) Andrew³ was dead in 1734, without chil. Will of an Andrew of Salis., July 22, Feb., 1747-8; ment. wife Hannah and dau. Edith, wife of Francis Hook. This must be some other Andrew, prob. of the fourth generation.

† An Isaac Green [aged 70?] d. May 12, 1716, bur. at Seabrook. [G. R. 1873, p. 60.] An Isaac² Green (Henry¹), of Hampton, doubtless the same, b. 1652, m. in 1681, Mary Cass; 5 chil. b. 1681-'98 given in D Hm. One of them, Jacob,³ m. Oct. 8, 1713[S], (52) MARY⁴ EATON of S.; and another, Isaac,³ b. Dec. 28, 1695[D Hm]. Possibly this family may be the same as the one of Salis.; but if so, Isaac² had two wives named Mary, the first one dying soon after the birth of Abigail; and two sons Isaac, the first one dying bef. 1695. There were also Greens in Hv. 1672 and later.

A Benjamin Green and wife Ruth of S., 1729; adm. est. Nov. 15, 1732.

1 EDMUND¹ GREENLEAF, Mr. and Capt., "dyer," b. ab. 1590;* came ab. 1635-8 from Ipswich, Eng., to Newbury, Mass.; m. 1st, Sarah Dole, who d. Jan. 18, 1663; 2d, wid. Sarah (Jurdaine, Wilson) Hill. He was head of the militia under Gerrish in 1644; rem. to Boston ab. 1650; d. March 24, 1670-1. Will Dec., 1668; April 12, 1671. Children:

4 ENOCH² GREENLEAF (*Edmund*¹), "dyer," b. ab. 1618; recd. land in Salisbury in the "first division," and in 1640, but his name is not on the S. lists of 1650 and later. It is said that he was a lieut. under Cromwell; but he was of Malden in 1665, rem. to Boston. He had estate in Malden, given him by his father, in 1663. He m. Mary —; both were living in Boston, 1683. Children:

- 12 I ENOCH,³ b. ab. 1647; m. 1st, Oct. 20, 1675, Bethia Woodman; 2d, Aug. 29, 1679, Catherine Truesdale. +
- 13 II MARY,³ b. —; [m. March 5, 1669[Nb], JOHN WELLS].†

* The "Greenleaf Genealogy" gives his baptism Jan. 2, 1574. This would make him nearly 60 years old when his youngest child was born, 70 when he was at the head of the militia, and 97 at his death. Another authority gives his birth about 1590, which seems more probable.

† The Greenleaf Gen. gives a Mary dau. of Enoch,² with no further account of her; but supposes that the Mary who m. John Wells was dau. of Edmund.¹ The above arrangement seems to us more probable.

NOTE.—For a full account of the Greenleafs, see "Genealogy of the Greenleaf Family," by James E. Greenleaf, Boston, 1896, pp. 553. Some corrections should be made in the earlier generations. For instance, Enoch Greenleaf was in Salisbury, Mass. [not Conn.] in 1639 and '40; but was not there in 1650. So far as appears from our records, he may have been in England at the latter date.

7 IV REBECCA, b. —;† m. Aug. 5, 1695[S], Jonathan Whiting [or Whidden] of Portsmouth; not ment. in will.

* In 1714, Benj. Smith, of Taunton, claimed this land in behalf of his wife Sarah, nearest of kin to Margaret (Hackett) Smith. Will of 1686 not found.

A Mary Haccat was dead in 1716, leaving daus. Mary, Sarah, and Rebecca Haccat, and sisters Rachel Berry of Boston, and others. They were daus. of Thomas Atkins, of Boston, but formerly inhabitant and owner of land at Small Point near Sagadahock. A John Hacket was of Boston, 1681-8.

† In 1664, Wm. Hackett had a case in Nk. Co. court against Robert Jones. Capt. Wm. Hackett of S. commanded the sloop "Indeavour" of S. in 1671; was tried in New Jersey for not paying duty there, after having paid in New York, and his sloop was declared forfeited. [G. R., 1879, p. 10.]

William Hackett and his son worked on a vessel built at Haverhill in 1678, for Nicholas Page of Boston. No son ment. in his will was old enough to receive wages in 1678, and John was then only 9 yrs. old, if living. This is one reason for supposing that Sarah Barnard may have been a second wife.

‡ We have no positive proof that Rebecca was dau. of Wm.; but her birth and that of Katherine prob. came in the break in the A. rec. Malachi, son of Rebecca Hacket, b. March 9, 1691[S]. Hannah Hacket, adult, bp. Aug. 30, 1719, S. chh. There were three wives of that name.

* A Mr. Hall of Salis. was in Eng. in 1653. His servant, Joseph Fletcher, is spoken of in Mass. Col. Rec. as having the care of his cattle. (2) John was dead, and (3) John too young. [See p. 89.]

† It has been thought that he might have been in Lynne, and per. Salem, before rem. to Salis.

‡ In G. R., 1893, pp. 138-140 and 244-5, are given English wills relating to this family, with pedigree. (2) John,¹ who died in America, was 2d son of John and Sarah Hall of London, and grandson of John and Ann Hall, also of London, merchants. (1) Samuel¹ Hall of Salis., who also returned to Eng., seems not to have been nearly related to (2) John.¹ In his will [G. R. 1893, p. 507], Samuel Hall of Langford, Essex, Eng., "gent.," ment. his "adopted cousin Mr John Hall of Islington" and the latter's "daughter Elizabeth." He made his wife Sarah and Mr. John Hall of Islington joint executors of his will. Sarah Hall, wid. of Samuel, made Mr. John Hall of Islington and Mr. Thomas Glover, a New England merchant living in London, joint executors of her will.

§ He was evidently not related to the other Halls. [See note, p. 142.]

* Quint states that James² was ensign in 1647; Sv. says he was ensign in 1659. If the earliest date is correct, the Ens. James may have been of an earlier generation, and per. bro. of John,¹ as Sv. suggests.

† See note to (14) John.²

‡ Sv. states that he resided in Kittery, was wounded in the Indian assault July 4, 1697, when his wife returning from worship was killed. The statements of Sv. prob. should refer to Capt. John³ of Kittery, son of (6) James,² whose first wife died July 4, 1696, as given by Quint, prob. 1697. Pike's Journal says Phebe Heard was slain July 4, 1697, and John H. wounded.

† There may have been other children of Benj.² There was a Benj. Jr. mentioned in Dover in 1693-4. Benj.³ seems to have rem. to Salis. about that time, but he had property in Dover up to the time of his death. The Benj. who was killed Aug. 29, 1723, could not have been any one of these, as all three were dead in 1710. There is no positive proof that the above arrangement is correct, but it seems to be the only possible one, if Benj.³ was a grandson of John.¹ If true, both Benj.² and Benj.³ must have mar. young.

* Age taken from deposition in the North will case, Supreme Court files, Boston, 1671-4. It does not seem probable that he was nearly related to the Ipswich Hubbards. Possibly he may have been a brother of the A. minister, though we find no Richard ment. among the sons of Rev. Peter Hobart or Hubbard [p. 17].

† The town of Amesbury, in 1667, granted to [Richard?] Hubbard a "common right when he comes to live among us;" but he seems to have settled in S. bef. that date. As this is nearly the time of Rev. Mr. Hubbard's service in A., it may possibly refer to him [p. 17]. Henry Wheeler of S. deeded house and land in S. to Richard Hubbard, 1684. Richard Hubbard of Boston deeded property in S. to Abigail Wheeler of Boston, wid. of Henry Wheeler, in 1696. He could not, however, have been long a resident of Boston.

1 THOMAS¹ MACY [or MACIE], b. ab. 1608, "planter," "clothier," or "merchant," came from Chilmark, Eng., to Newbury, Mass., but rem. to Salisbury, where he recd. land in 1639, '40, and '42; commoner and taxed 1650; rep. 1654; etc. He was one of the original commoners and clerk of Amesbury, 1654-9; recd. land there 1652, '4 and '8; but rem. to Nantucket in 1659, the subject of Whittier's poem, "The Exiles."* He m. Sarah Hopcott, who d. in 1706, aged 94. He d. April 19, 1682. [See pp. 103, 118.]

He was prosecuted and fined for allowing four Friends on a journey to take shelter in his house about three quarters of an hour one rainy day, in 1659, as his own letter to the court informs us. It is worthy of note that his grandson and many others of his descendants became Friends. Like Roger Williams, he fled from persecution in Massachusetts. His family were the first white settlers in Nantucket, then under the jurisdiction of New York. Edward Starbuck and Isaac Coleman, a lad 12 years old, accompanied them.† Children :

* For full particulars respecting the Macy family, see "Genealogy of the Macy Family," 1868, pp. 457. The author states that Thomas Macy "was of the Baptist persuasion, and would frequently on the Sabbath exhort the people," in Amesbury. Pike's "New Puritan" also states that "both he and Peasley were at that time members of a Baptist sect in Salis." We have failed to find on the Ames. records any proof that they were Baptists. Joseph Peasley and Thomas Macy were leaders in the determination of the Ames. people not to attend meeting in Salis., but to hold one of their own in the new town.

† Thomas Mayhew, of Martha's Vineyard, deeded nineteen-twentieths of the island of Nantucket, in July, 1659, to Tristram Coffin, Thomas Macy, Christopher Hussey, Richard Swayne, Thomas Barnard, Peter Coffin, Stephen Greenleaf, John Swayne, and William Pile, Mayhew reserving a share for himself, thus making the ten proprietors. At a meeting of the proprietors held at Salisbury, Sep. 2, 1659, the ten owners were authorized to admit ten partners. Thomas Mayhew took John Smith, Tristram Coffin took Nathaniel Starbuck, Thomas Macy took Edward Starbuck, Christopher Hussey took Robert Pike, Thomas Barnard took Robert Barnard, Peter Coffin took James Coffin, Stephen Greenleaf took Tristram Coffin, Jr., Richard Swain took Thomas Look, John Swain took Thomas Coleman, and William Pile sold his whole tenth to Richard Swain in 1663. The Indian deed of 1671 was to "Tristram Coffin, Thomas Macy, Richard Swayne, Thomas Barnard, John Swayne, Mr. Thomas Mayhew,

* There was a Lieut. James March of Greenland, sadler, 1706; but G. R., 1853, p. 84, makes him nephew of Col. John of S., possibly (12) James.³

† There were Martins in Ipswich, Andover, Dover, and Portsmouth, before 1700; but we have not found them related to the Amesbury family.

‡ According to a deposition of Robert Pike, in 1695, "George Martine came over a servant to Mr. Sam. Winsley, about the time of the beginning of the town of Salisbury, then called Colchester [1639], and was no commoner in Salisbury . . . till he bought John Cole's first wright . . . , in the year 1643 or thereabout, at the time said Cole went to Andover on somer" prob. lived west of the Powow as early as 1649; an original commoner and lot layer of A, 1654-5, where he recd. land 1654-64; meeting house seat 1667, etc. "Goodwife Martin" also had a seat assigned in 1667. Oath fid. and al. 1646 and 1677. [See p. 89.] He d. ab. 1686; will Jan. 19, 1683-4; Nov. 23, 1686. Wid. [one summer]. Cole returned to Salisbury, and was admitted a townsman and commoner in 1650; so that Martin was commoner by Cole's first right, and Cole by his own second right. [Supreme Court Files, Boston.]

* She was arrested by a warrant dated April 30, examined May 20, 1692. One charge against her was that she went from A. to Nb. afoot, in a "dirty season," without getting her clothing wet. She is described as "a short, active woman, wearing a hood and scarf, plump and well developed in her figure, of remarkable personal neatness;" one who "scorned to be drabbed;" "a strong minded woman, as her examination shows."

If the testimony of Wm. Brown [p. 75] is conclusive as to date, she was accused of witchcraft as early as 1660. In April, 1669, suit of Geo. Martyn against William Sargent, for slander, in saying said Martyn's wife was a witch, the jury found for the defendant, but the court "concurred not with the jury." Geo. Martyn gave bond that his wife Susanna should appear at the next court to answer to the charge concerning suspicion of witchcraft. In Oct., 1669, she was required to acknowledge in open court that she wronged Christopher Bartlett, in charging him with lying and stealing. [Nk. Co. Rec.]

† The record "d. Dec. 11, 1662[S]," is prob. an error. Wm. gave his age as 63 in March, 1725-6. Of course (9) Wm. may have d. the day of his birth; but if so, a second Wm. was b. ab. 1663.

† The house of William Morse was noted for the disturbances there in 1679, attributed to witchcraft. His wife Elizabeth was tried and convicted of witchcraft in 1680, but not executed, through "the goodness of the honored Governor," 1681. [See Upham's "Salem Witchcraft," vol. 1, pp. 438-453; also C Nb. and Morse Memorial.]

‡ The Morse Memorial gives also Edmund,² b. ab. 1656, but states that there is no evidence that he was son of Wm.¹ Son *Edmund*³ bp. Feb. 24, 1677-8 at Nb.; neither ment. in will of Wm.,¹ 1683.

NOTE.—There was a Joseph Morse of Ipswich, will 1646, wife Dorothy and son Jolin; also Samuel Morse of Dedham, who left numerous descendants, given in the "Memorial of the Family of Morse," compiled by H. D. Lord, 1896. Some facts and dates not otherwise credited have been taken from that volume.

* Hannah, dau. of Abigail Morse, b. Sep. 16, 1676[Nb].

† He may possibly have belonged to the Morse family, but apparently was not (31) John.³ It is possible that (7) Joseph² had a son John; but we have no proof that such was the case.

‡ Geo. Goldwyer of Salis. and wife Martha, March, 1674-5, deeded rights "bought of my father-in-law Joseph Moys of Salis." A deed of Martha Pike, in 1700, ment. her sister Greeley and her "consin" Ephraim Winsley, Sr.

§ We have found no proof, but the name Moyce, that Hannah Moyce was dau. of Joseph.

|| — Mudget d. May, 1663[S]. Name also spelled Mugat, Muggitt, Mughitt, on the records. The name Mudgett is one of the first in the early history of Brentwood, N. H. There were Madgetts in Gloucester ab. 1725-35.

¶ Papers are on record showing arbitration between Thomas Mudgett and Thomas Barnard respecting certain mills on the Powow, 1688 to 1697, when Thomas Mudgett seems to have sold two-thirds of a corn-mill or grist-mill, two-thirds of a fulling-mill, and one-half of a saw-mill.

ANTHONY NEWLAND was one of the "townsmen and commoners" of Salisbury in 1650; but his name is near the end of the list, and he prob. lived in S. but a short time, if at all, as his name is not on other lists. He may have rem. to Taunton.*

NOTE.—The records of the Mussey family are so defective that the above genealogy can not be considered complete, and may be inaccurate in some particulars. It seems to be the most probable arrangement which will account for accessible facts.

* There were Newlands in Taunton. Anthony Newland, son of Jeremiah of Taunton, b. Aug. 1, 1657; m. Dec. 16, 1682, Esther Austin.

* G. R., 1853, p. 87, Coffin, copied by Sv., gives Richard North of Salem. This is an error, as his residence is given as Salisbury, in the will itself.

† From papers (55 in all) on Supreme Court Files, Boston, in case of Geo. Martyn and wife Susanna against Nathaniel Winsley, relating to wills of Richard North and wife, it appears that Ann Oldham did not come "to this land" till 1653 or '4, and that she married Bates in July, 1657; hence could not be called Ann Bates in will of 1648. Susanna Martin and Mary Jones were the only living children of Richard North in 1672 and '74.

8 CHRISTOPHER¹ OSGOOD, of Ipswich, "brickmaker," came in the "Mary and John," from London, March, 1633-4; free.

* He was older than William of Salis., and we find no proof of relationship between John, Christopher, and William, though they and their families were closely associated.

† He was at Ip., then Nb., and settled in And. ab. 1644. John Osgood was one of the petitioners who had liberty to begin a plantation at Hm. in 1638.

1635. He was in Ip. as early as 1634; m. 1st, April 21, 1632, Mary Everatt, who was bur. April 21, 1633; 2d, July 28, 1633, (2) MARGARET² FOWLER; both in Eng. He d. in 1650; will April 19, Oct. 10, 1650. Wid. "Margery" m. 2d, THOMAS¹ ROWELL; 3d, Thomas Coleman; 4th, Thomas Osborne. Chil.:

15 WILLIAM¹ OSGOOD of Salisbury, "carpenter" and "millwright," b. ab. 1609; m. Elizabeth —. He recd. land in S. in 1641,† '42, and '54; "commoner" and taxed in S., 1650 and '52. He also recd. land in A. in 1659 and '62, and was a "townsman" of A. in 1660, a "commoner" of A. in 1667-8; he and "Goodwife Osgood" had seats in the A. meeting house in 1667; but he was a "householder" of S. in 1677. His name appears among both the S. and A. names in 1680.

By the original articles of agreement [M. Ames., p. 51], in 1654, he and his family were to have certain rights in the new town, though residing in the old. His mill on the Powow river, though on the S. side, brought him into close relations with the

* Not ment. in will, prob. posthumous. Later generations of the three different branches of the family may be found in the "Osgood Genealogy," 1894. See also "The Fowler Family," pp. 11-15.

† In 1640 he built a barn in Nb. for John Spencer. In 1641 he was granted land in S., on condition that he build a saw-mill on the Powow river. A saw-mill, situated on "Pawwans river," in Salis., near to a corn-mill, was in possession of Wm. Osgood, Philip Challis, Wm. Barnes, and Anthony Colby, in 1658. [Recorded 1679.] Each of the four was to use the mill a week in turn. Colby admitted Samuel Worcester to a share of his fourth. "Osgood's Mill," Salis., was ment in 1682.

William Osgood testified against John Godfrey, tried for witchcraft, 1658-9, occurrence running back to 1640. [Upham, vol. 1, pp. 432-3.] "Goodwife Osgood" was summoned to give evidence concerning Susanna Martin in 1661. [See note, p. 75.]

new town. Quite a number of the residents of S. and A. worked for him at different times, and his enterprise appears to have drawn young men to that locality from other places. NOTE.—The various branches of the Perkins family have been carefully studied in order to find the parentage of Mary Perkins, b. ab. 1652, who m. in 1669-70, Rev. Thomas Wells, first minister of Amesbury. In addition to those given in the text, may be mentioned the following:

ABRAHAM¹ PERKINS, of Hampton, b. ab. 1613; d. Aug. 31, 1683; wid. Mary d. May 29, 1705, aged 88 yrs. DHm. gives 12 chil., b. 1637-'61. The eldest dau., Mary,² b. —; bp. Dec. 15, 1639; m. June 7, 1652, Giles Fifield. The eldest son, Abraham,² b. Sep. 2, 1639; m. Elizabeth Sleeper (Thomas); killed by Indians June 13, 1677; wid. Eliz. m. Dec. 24, 1677, Alexander Denham. [See G. R., 1896, pp. 34-40, which gives 13 chil. of Abraham.¹]

ISAAC¹ PERKINS, of Hampton, per. bro. of Abraham; d. Nov., 1685. The "Perkins Family" gives him, with wife Alice, of Ipswich, bef. 1638. DHm. gives wife Susanna and 12 chil. b. 1633-'61. Mary,² b. July 23, 1658; m. Feb. 20, 1673-4, (5) ISAAC² CHASE. Susanna,² b. Aug. 21, 1652; m. 1st, May 19, 1673, (6) ISAAC² BUSWELL; 2d, June 29, 1680, (4) WILLIAM² FULLER. Jacob Perkins (prob. Isaac), late of Hm., was of Holmes Hole, Martha's Vineyard, in 1674.

THOMAS PERKINS, of York Co., d. in 1661. Sv. gives Thomas, b. 1628, of Dover 1665. There were also WILLIAM and PETER of Dover, and Perkins families in Cape Porpoise, quite early. EDWARD of New Haven, Ct., 1648, left descendants. JOHN d. Jan., 1672-3, leaving a wid. "Casiah," ap. adm. in Boston.

The following publications may be consulted for the early genealogy of the Perkins family: G. R. 1856, pp. 211-216, 369; 1858, pp. 79-83; Hist. Coll. Essex Inst., vol. 19, pp. 213, 254, etc.; DHm., pp. 907-910, etc.; "The Perkins Family," by Dr. Geo. A. Perkins, published in three parts, 1882-'89, gives descendants of (14) JOHN,² (15) THOMAS,² and (18) JACOB² respectively.

restrain Peasley and Macy of Ames. from preaching in the absence of a minister. He declared "that those members who had voted for it had violated their oaths as freemen; that their act was against the liberty of the country, both civil and ecclesiastical, and that he stood ready to make his declaration good." For this he was tried, convicted, fined, and disfranchised, by the General Court. The punishment inflicted on Lieut. Pike caused petitions to be signed by many persons in the surrounding towns, asking that the sentence be revoked. This offended the Court still more, and the signers were called upon to give "a reason of their unjust request." In Oct., 1654, out of the whole number of signers, about one-fifth, or fifteen persons, only, were reported "who have not given satisfaction," and therefore insisted upon the right of petition [p. 89]. Robert Pike's fine was paid, and in Oct., 1657, his disfranchisement was removed. In 1658 he was again elected to the General Court.

In 1675 Robert Pike resisted the authority assumed by his pastor, Rev. John Wheelwright, and was excommunicated from the S. chh.; but was reinstated the next year.

In 1692 he appeared in the third great controversy of his life, in opposition to the witchcraft delusion.

His being one of the purchasers of Nantucket in 1659 does not prove his residence in either Salisbury or Nantucket, as some of the ten were not Salisbury men, and some did not remove to Nantucket. His name is the only one of the original ten which does not appear on the Indian deed of 1671. He may have been a resident of Dover all along. [See p. 236.]

NOTE.—Among the deeds at Salem is a document, dated Oct. 22, 1668, which states that Richard Ring of Marlborough, Wilts, Old Eng., and his children, namely, Joseph Ring, Isaac Ring, his sons; and Elizabeth Shropshire, wid., and Hester Ring, his dau., claimed debts due them in New England; and Joseph Ring, the bearer, was to travel thither for himself, his father, bro. and sisters. JOHN ROLFE willed them property in 1664.

* Rev. Chr. Wordsworth writes that he finds only this entry about Richard Ring on the register of St. Peter's.

† He was prob. the Robert "King," aged 24, who came as servant of John Sanders, with John Cole, Roger Eastman, William Cottle, John "Roaff" and others, in the "Confidence," 1638. [G. R. 1860, p. 335.]

‡ Robert Ring returned to England and made Robert Pike his agent by a writing bearing date 1643. He was away about 8 years, and stated that he could not return to America by reason of the wars in England. His name is not on the list of commoners in 1650; but he was taxed in 1650 and 1652, signed the agreement of 1654, and recd. land that year. After his return to Salis. he endeavored to regain his common right and that of John Fuller, which he owned. The town claimed that, on account of his absence, land had been given to those who bought his first lots. Various papers relating to the case, bearing date from 1658 to 1665, are in the Norfolk Co. records, the Mass. Archives, and Supreme Court Files, Boston. In one of them he states that he "sent over a servant who is now a useful man in the town and admitted a townsman."

§ In it he gave property to "Will Cottle, son to Sarah, now wife of John Hale of Nb., and Joanna, dau. to said Sarah;" also to Rev. Thomas Wells and his son Titus; in addition to his children and grandchildren, named as such.

* Henry True, either father or son, was at one time town clerk of Salis. On the Supreme Court Files, Boston, is a certificate signed by him, bearing date Sep., 1640; but it was copied from "an old book in my hands," the "records of Colchester, commonly called Salisbury;" hence the copy was made after 1640, perhaps many years later. It seems probable that the son, Capt. Henry,² was the one who signed the document, as he was clerk just before 1700.

† Sv. gives John, bp. July 13, 1645; prob. mistake for Henry.

* An account of the descendants of (4) John² was published in Milwaukee, in 1874, by Charles K. Wells.

† Thomas Wells, "a man grown," bp. May 27, 1699[Nb].

‡ In his will, (2) Thomas¹ makes provision for his son's going to college, but the name is not found in the earliest catalogues. He was, however, the first person who recd. the honorary degree of A. M. from H. C. In the triennial catalogue of 1727, his name is put at the bottom of the class of 1669; in KINS. He was of Ipswich in 1667, when he bought land in Wells, but was living in the town of Wells in Dec., 1669, as a deed to his bro. Nathl. expressly states. Sv. states that he preached at Kittery and Isle of Shoals in 1670. He was the first settled minister of the first chh. in A., having been settled in 1672 or '3; though preaching had been enjoyed in the "new town" for ten or twenty years before that time. [See pp. 17, 18.]* For the next half century he was the leading spirit of the town. He d. July 10, 1734;† will Aug. 7, 1728; July 29, 1734. Wife Mary d. Jan. 26, 1726-7[A]. Children:

1745, perhaps earlier, it was separated from the others by a line, and 1703 added. In 1830, the names of those who had recd. honorary and ad eundem degrees were made a distinct division of the catalogue, and Thomas Wells was placed at the head of the list, under the year 1703. He may have been, at one time, a member of the class of 1669.

* "Mr. Thomas Wales," made townsman and commoner in 1674[M. Ames.], was prob. Rev. Thomas Wells.

† From the spelling and appearance of the inscriptions upon the tombstones, given below, it would seem that Mr. Wells's stone was erected later than those around it:

Interred here the BODY of,

NOTE.—"Bro. John Wheeler and his wife" killed by Indians, Aug. 27, 1706. [Pike's Journal.]

1 JOHN¹ WHEELWRIGHT, Rev., Mr., b. ab. 1592-'4, in Lincolnshire, Eng.; m. 1st, Nov. 8, 1621, Marie Storre [Story] (Rev. Thomas), of Bilsby, who d. in Eng.; 2d, Mary Hutchinson (Edward of Alford, Eng.) [sister of Wm. and Samuel* Hutchinson of Boston, Mass., the former afterwards of R. I.]. He grad. Cambridge University, 1614, where he was acquainted with Oliver Cromwell; was vicar of Bilsby, Eng., 1623-'31; came to Boston, Mass., in 1636; preached at Mt. Wollaston [Braintree]; but sympathy with the views of his relative, Anne (Marbury) Hutchinson [wife of Wm. Hutchinson], led to his banishment from Mass. He founded Exeter in 1638, but in 1642 it was declared within the limits of Mass., and he rem. with part of his chh. to Wells, Me., of which he was one of the original proprietors. After a reconciliation with the government, he returned to Mass. in 1646; was the third minister of the Hampton chh., ab. 1647-'58; went to Eng. but returned in 1660, and became the second minister of the Salisbury chh., Dec 9, 1662; d. in S., Nov. 15, 1679[S]; will May 25, 1679† [G. - 4 III WILLIAM,² b. March 31, 1658[Ip].‡ Adm. est. of a Wm. of Ip. March 11, 1695.

1 JOHN§ WHITTIER, prob. of Newbury, d. at sea, Feb. 20, 1678-9; testimony about verbal will rec. at Sm. in 1679, no relatives ment., John Kelly to have his estate, Abiel Kelly a horse. Felt gives John Whiteyear of Ip. 1635.

* The name "Florence" is given on the authority of Sv. The "second wife" Charity and dau. Rebecca, b. May 27, 1687, given by Sv., must be wife and dau. of Thomas.³ Joseph Morgan and Philip Fowler were sureties on bond adm. with Thomas³ in 1696. John . . . raste was son-in-law of either Thomas² or Samuel.² Richard Norman was per. called "bro." by Thomas.³

† See account of her remarkable death in Diary of Rev. Wm. Adams, 4 Mass. Hist. Coll. 1, 17.

‡ Possibly Wm.,³ son of Thomas,² but given son of Wm., Ip. rec.

§ C Nb is incorrect in giving Thomas d. 1679 and John d. 1699. The two are doubtless one person, John, as above.

Elizabeth Whittier, wife of Abraham sen. [of Hv.?), d. Nov. 5, 1683. Abraham Whittier taken captive by Indians in Hv., Aug., 1697, or '91, age 8 or 9. [Es. Antiquarian, April, 1899, p. 61.] If a grandson of (2) Thomas,¹ we know not by what father.

* Probably the one who came in the "Confidence" from Southampton in 1638, "servant" of (1) JOHN¹ ROLFE and "kinsman" of (4) HENRY¹ ROLFE.

† The will of John¹ Rolfe, 1664 [p. 300], called John² and Richard² Whittier "my sister's sons." G. R. 1882, p. 144, states that Thomas¹ Whittier mar. a sister of Henry¹ and John¹ Rolfe. Ruth Green appears on the Hv. records. It is not an original entry of marriage, however, and no date is given. The record was made about 1665. On the Salis. rec. Mary, b. 1647, is dau. of Thomas and Ruth. The suggestion has been made that Ruth may have been a half sister of the Rolfes, or a wid. when she mar. Whittier, or possibly a sister of John Rolfe's wife. Thomas Whittier was, however, more than 30 yrs. younger than John Rolfe.

GEORGE WATHEN member of Salem chh, 1641 [chil. b. 1631-45?].

GOODY WATHIN ment. in will of Jane Cummings of Sm., July, 1644; Elnor Wathin witness.

Inv. est. wid. MARGARET WATHEN of Sm., July 20, 1644; inv. est. wid. Margery Wathen, Aug. 28, 1644; prob. the same.

THOMAS WATHEN appears on the Salem court rec. Nov., 1648, neglect of watch, etc. Inv. est. Thomas Wathin, who went with Robert Gray in Capt. . . . and d. with Prince Rupert, prob. of Gloucester, son to Edman Wathen and "cousin german" to William Sargent of Gloucester, nearest of kin in this country, said Wm. being his father's sister's son, 1652. Testimony of Zeblon Hill, formerly of Co. Bristol, Old Eng., one of the appraisers, 1653. Deborah Joy, age 27, wife of Walter, slightly related to Wathen, desired Wm. Sargent to be adm. est. 1652.

EZEKIEL WATHEN, in June, 1656, was put by the court to Thomas Avery, till the former should be of age. Ezekiel Wathen adm. est. of Thomas Wathen, Nov., 1657. Inv. est. Thomas Wathen, of Gloucester, 1653, sworn by Ezekiel Wathen, his kinsman, and recd. June 30, 1658. Ezekiel Wathin of Salem, 1662.

1 EZEKIEL¹ WORTHEN* [or WATHEN], of Amesbury, m. Dec. 4, 1661[S], (2) HANNAH² MARTIN; recd. land in A. in 1663; meeting house seat 1667; oath al. 1677; signed petitions of 1680; will May 5, 1715; Aug. 6, 1716. Wid. Hannah d. June 29, 1730, at the house of her son-in-law, Samuel Fowler. Name Wathen or Wathin on oldest records. Children:

- 2 I HANNAH,² b. April 21, 1663[S]; m. Dec. 5, 1684[S], (11) SAMUEL³
 FOWLER. +
 3 II JOHN,² b. Feb. 12, 1664-5[S]; m. Dec. 30, 1689, MARY HADLOCK. +

* Sv. says Ezekiel may be son of John Watten, adm. est. 1654; prob. of Portsmouth, member chh. May, 1640. [G. R., 1855, p. 180.] It seems more probable that he was the Ezekiel of Salem or Gloucester ment. above, prob. b. ab. 1636, not more nearly related to Thomas than nephew or cousin, per. son of George. It would appear that Samuel Foot and Ezekiel Wathen went from the vicinity of Salem to Amesbury and mar. daus. of Ames. commoners, about the same time.

M. Ames. states that JOSEPH WATHEN was made a townsman of A. in 1669.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

ADDITIONS AND MINOR CORRECTIONS.

- P. 5. "Francis Dow" should probably be Francis Dove. [See p. 132.]
- P. 19. It would appear that William Hoyt had a seat assigned him in the meeting-house when only seven years old.
- P. 21. "Will: Scammon" should doubtless be Sammon.
- P. 29. Names, whether in Italics or Roman, placed in parentheses after a person's surname, indicate the father and other ancestors of that person.
- P. 30. "Row." should be Rw.
- P. 31. 9 JOSEPH² ALLEN. See p. 83; also "Es. Antiquarian," Feb., 1899, which gives 17 chil. of (9) Joseph;² and a full genealogy of the descendants of (1) WILLIAM¹ ALLEN, down to 1800.

CONCLUSION.

The compiler of this volume desires to express his satisfaction that he has been able to complete, in accordance with the original plan, the work to which he has given so much time for several years. The publication would have been less full and complete had not assistance been rendered by various persons. Thanks are especially due to Mr. Charles A. Hoyt of New York City and Mr. Henry P. Upham of St. Paul, for valuable pecuniary aid; also to Mr. Wm. H. Greenleaf, town clerk of Salisbury, Mr. J. W. Gale of Amesbury, Mrs. Ellen M. Little of Newbury, and Mr. W. W. Roberts, city clerk of Haverhill, for much assistance in searching the records of their respective towns, in order to clear up doubtful points and complete the records of particular families. Valuable assistance has also been rendered by Miss Elizabeth P. Nourse, Probate Office, Salem, Mass.

Two important errors have been the result of accepting as true, without verification from original records, the statements made in Coffin's History of Newbury and Chase's History of Haverhill. Each mistake arises from confounding two persons of about the same age, bearing the same name. These errors have been corrected on pages 386, 387, and slips have also been prepared for insertion at pages 46 and 78, where the errors occur. A third error is apparently the result of some person's misreading the expression, "daughter Sarah I reckon she had her full portion upon her marriage," in the will of Isaac Estey, Sen., of Topsfield, 1709-'11, and calling it "Sarah Ireland," etc., as given on page 175. It is almost impossible to distinguish Merrill from Morrill, and Bayley from Bagley on the old records. Three such errors have been corrected on the preceding pages, and other mistakes will doubtless be found, notwithstanding the care that has been exercised to secure accuracy. Different spellings of the same name are the result of following those found on the original records.

An expression of doubt, such as "prob." or "?," has been used in all cases where perfectly satisfactory proof has not been found. Its use does not generally mean probably wrong. In most cases, such statements will be found to be correct. Quite a number have already been proved to be so, as will appear from the preceding pages of minor corrections. The interrogation point [?] is intended to apply only to the part included within the brackets or parentheses.

In general, those dates followed by brackets giving the town records from which they are taken are more likely to be accurate than those without such authority specified, except, of course, probate records, which are presumably accurate. More care has been taken with the early dates; those later than 1700 have sometimes been taken from other sources than original records. The deficiencies which are the result of the loss of the earliest records of Amesbury have been already explained. [Pp. 27-8.]

It will be noticed that the surnames of the wives of the earlier generations are often wanting. Some are herein printed for the first time, and it is hoped that other blanks may yet be filled by a study of early original documents, which may yet be found, either in this country or in England. No such lists of the names of women are available as are printed in this volume giving the names of men. Valuable exceptions are found on pages 24 and 375-6; but these names of women give little clue to parentage.
