SINCE the publication of Volume III, the reception of many letters of inquiry has led to further investigation along certain lines, and the study of some complicated genealogical problems. The recent printing of old records has brought to light information not before readily accessible. In accordance with the urgent request of various persons interested in such matters, these additions are here preserved in print.

- 26 JOHN SEALY. Deposition before Wm. Hathorne, July 19, 1672, presented at Ip. Quarterly Ct., Sept., 1672. Apparently a Marblehead case.
- 27 RICHARD SYLE who m. wid. Hannah Scott, of Rw., Aug. 31, 1697[Nb], may possibly belong to this family; but we find Richard of Rw.[Ip], 1719, and John of Nb., 1723, with the same spelling, Syle.

The name Cellee, Nb. V. R., vol. 1, p. 103, should read Kelly.

Hawke [Danville], N. H., Chh. Rec. [G. R. 1904, pp. 42-6, 121-2] has the following:

John Selley, 8 chil., bp. 1764-79.

William Selley, 1 child, bp. 1764.

Mary Selley of Hawke m. Ebenezer Tucker, Jr., of Hm. Falls, Dec. 22, 1768.

Moses Selley of Chester m. Elizabeth Thorn, of Kg., Dec. 5, 1771.

The family is found in various other N. H. towns.

The writer has found too few records of the Cilley family to enable him to classify accurately the early generations, as shown on p. 892.

Colby Family.

1 ANTHONY<sup>1</sup> COLBY. There was an ancient Colby family in Banham, Norfolk Co., Eng. The ancestor of one branch was Sir John Colby, Kt., of Swarson [Swardeston], Norfolk. A pedigree of some of his descendants is printed on p. 82 of "The Visitations of Norfolk, 1563, 1589, and 1613," Harl. Soc. Pub., 1891. One of the seventh generation, named Anthony Colby, died without issue. His nephew, Christopher<sup>8</sup> Colby, son of Thomas<sup>7</sup> and Elizabeth (Greene) Colby (Edward<sup>6</sup>, William<sup>5</sup>, Thomas<sup>4</sup>, Robert<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>), is the eldest son of a family of eleven children, with whose names the pedigree ends. No dates are given, nor any means of determining from which of the three visitations the pedigree was taken. They were combined about 1620.

There is a Colby parish in Norfolk, and a Coleby one in Lincoln.

"Lincolnshire Pedigrees," Harl. Soc. Pub., 1904, contains a pedigree of the Thorold family of Marston. On p. 983 is a Christopher Colby of Grantham, who m. Anne Thorold. They had chil.: Thomas, Anthony, Markham, and Helen Colby, who were legatees of their aunt, Elizabeth Thorold, who d. unm. in 1616. Anne (Thorold) Colby had a brother and a grandfather both named Sir Anthony Thorold, Kt. The bro. was high sheriff of Co. Lincoln in 1617. This Christopher Colby of Grantham (Co. Lincoln) may have been the son of Thomas of Banham, Norfolk, named without comment in the pedigree quoted above; but proof has not been found.

Anthony Colby, son of Christopher and Anne, must have been b. as early as 1595 to be executor of the will of another aunt, Mary Thorold, who d. unm. in 1615. This Anthony Colby was therefore b. about the same time as Anthony Colby of Salisbury, Mass., but here, again, proof of identity is lacking. The names Thomas and Anthony are repeated early in this country, but not Christopher, Markham, Anne, or Helen.

James W. Colby, in his "History of the Colby Family," Waltham, Mass., 1895, states that Anthony of Salisbury, b. 1690, was son of Thomas of Beccles, Suffolk, Eng. He carries the ancestry back through Suffolk families, probably descended from John<sup>3</sup>, who disappears from the Norfolk pedigree, eldest son of John<sup>2</sup> of Banham, Norfolk, grandson of Sir John<sup>1</sup>, and bro. of Robert<sup>3</sup>; but gives no authority. He carries the Norfolk line much further back than Sir John, to Robert de Colebi. He gives Colby families in other parts of England, and gives the ancestry of Christopher<sup>8</sup> as we have it above; but states that he was living in 1616 and left no issue. The "Visitations" quoted above make no such statement. Mr. Colby omits entirely the Thorold-Colby line, which includes an Anthony Colby who may have been b. in 1690.

It is probable that the Suffolk family is a branch of the Norfolk line; but it is doubtful if the connection Mr. Colby gives is correct. If we understand his arrangement, he makes the ancestry of Anthony of Salisbury as follows: Sir John<sup>1</sup>, John<sup>2</sup> of Banham, John<sup>3</sup>, d. 1459, John<sup>4</sup> of Brundish (Suffolk), d. 1540(?), Thomas<sup>5</sup> of Beccles, will 1588, Anthony<sup>6</sup>, b. 1590. It is not often that a son dies 81 years later than his father, and if a man's will was probated in 1588, he could not have a son b. in 1590. Mr. Colby gives a Christopher of this branch, an uncle of Anthony of Salisbury. Could he have been the husband of Anne Thorold? Six generations seem too few. If the Christopher of Banham and Grantham were the same, the son Anthony would be of the ninth generation.

The Suffolk "Visitation" of 1664, published in 1910, gives a later pedigree, showing that Rev. Thomas<sup>8</sup> Colby, son of Thomas<sup>7</sup> and bro. of Christopher<sup>8</sup>, settled in Cawston, Norfolk, and had a son, John of Waltham, Suffolk, in 1664.

Dea. (16) THOMAS<sup>8</sup> COLBY d. Dec. 25, 1738, in his 71st y.[A V R].

728 THOMAS COLBY. Mr. Wm. G. Nichols, of Griffin, Ga., states that family tradition makes Hannah a sister of (729) Judith and (731) Mary, or Molly, and adds the following to the records on pp. 692-3:

729a HANNAH, b. Apr. 2, 1752*; bp. July 12, 1752 [2A, p. 1057]; m. Hezekiah Nichols, int. Jan. 3, 1775[A]. Shed. June 16, 1814, aged "62 y." [A V R].

731 MARY, or MOLLY, b. Mch. 15, 1756[A]; bp. Mch. 28, 1756[2A]; m. Nov. 14, 1798[A], Maj. Isaac Whittier, his 2d wife. She d. Jan. 5, 1807, aged "52 y." [A V R]. As the date of birth is prob. correct, either the date or age at death must be incorrect by one year—a discrepancy not unusual on tombstones.

The records of the Second Church for renewing covenant give no dates for the first twenty years, and no months for the first forty years, except "Dec. 1750," p. 506, which prob. applies only to Joseph Harvey. Thos. Colby and wife doubtless ren. cov. Feb. 10, 1750-1, the day of his baptism, p. 528. The records show that this was the custom in other cases.

*The town rec. reads "1751"; but 1752 corresponds with her bp. and age on her tombstone, and with the birth of Judith.

(51) THOMAS COLBY and (728) THOMAS COLBY, pp. 656, 692-3, were probably the same person, as suggested on p. 693. That one was called "yeoman" and the other "blacksmith" several years later, does not disprove identity. We have found no record of the removal, death, or probate of (51) Thomas. He was still Thomas "3d," on the town rec., when his son (153) Jonathan<sup>5</sup> was b., in the West Parish, in 1730. About 20 years later, a Thomas Colby m. Hannah Sargent, in S. Hm., and a Thomas and Hannah had several chil. b. in the same West Parish, as given above. Assuming the identity, (51) Thomas would be 53 y. old at the birth of his youngest child by his second wife, and 55 y. at his death. We find no clear evidence that there were two adult Thomas Colbys in the W. Parish between 1743 and 1761.

If living, (51) Thomas was really Sen. after 1741, as both (16) and (32) Thomas d. about that time. (87) Thomas was then Jr., of the E. Parish, and on the N. H. side of the State line of 1742 in his later life. There was therefore little occasion to use either Sr. or Jr. (87) Thomas was called Jr. of A. in 1745, perhaps rem. to Newton after 1760 (p. 665). All the births of the chil. of (728)[51] Thomas on the town records, and all the baptisms on the chh. records are given without either Sr. or Jr. The term "Jr." appears only on a duplicate record of the births of the two youngest chil., where it may have been used to distinguish (51) Thomas from his father, of the same parish, several years after the death of the latter. In settling the estate of his father and mother, 1739-42 and later, he was Thomas Jr.; also in deeds recorded at Salem, 1748 and 1755.

If the two Thomases were the same person, he prob. was not bp. in childhood, though his father, (16) Thomas<sup>3</sup>, was one of the members of the 1st chh. who formed the 2d chh., of which he was elected one of the first two deacons, in 1726, when his son Thomas was 20 y. old. Moreover, as suggested on p. 693, the bp. of his son Jonathan in 1732 must have been on account of the mother or the grandfather, Dea. Thomas, though not so stated. See p. 513, where "3d" is not used, though it is on the town rec.

Currier Family.

14 SAMUEL<sup>3</sup> CURRIER, pp. 121, 700. Son: (40) ASA<sup>4</sup>, p. 905, bp. Aug. 18, 1734 [J2A, p. 1057].

4 JAMES<sup>1</sup> DAVIS. A James Davis m. June 11, 1618, Sysley Tayer (early form of the New Eng. name Thayer) at Gloucester [from Thornbury Parish Register, Gloucestershire, Eng.] It has been thought by some this may have been the marriage of the Hv. settler, claimed by Bible records to have come from Marlborough, Wiltshire, b. 1584-9; but other names and dates do not coincide. This may prove an ancestor of one of the other Davis families of Salisbury and Amesbury, or possibly Gloucester, Mass.*

We have found no record of a Sarah Davis who could have m. Philip Rowell.

The A. vital records are missing from 1677 to 1685[p. 28], and the chh. rec. are also lost. This gap in the records of Amesbury families can sometimes be filled, in part at least, by means of probate rec. and deeds, as appears in the third or fourth generations of the Colby, Currier, Huntington, Martin, Rowell, Weed, Wells, and other families. Two additional daus. were recently found for the family of (3) John<sup>2</sup> Hoyt [pp. 981-2], and prob. two for that of (4) Samuel<sup>2</sup> Foot [p. 961]. Two sons, (95) Thomas and (96a) Samuel, have been added to the family of (92) FRANCIS DAVIS, pp. 130, 726-8. As (96) Francis was the "3d son," either (95) Thomas or (96a) Samuel, and perhaps two or three daus., were b. within that period. If there were a second wife Mary, as suggested on p. 726, there may have been only one dau. not rec.

(93) John Davis, (94) Gertrude Sargent and Philip Rowell [95a Sarah] each had a dau. Alice, all apparently named for their grandmother Alice, wife of Walter Taylor. The birth of no other Alice Rowell or Davis appears on the A. V. R., and only two other Alice Sargents, of a later generation. (95) Thomas Davis had a granddau. named Alice, b. in Newton, in 1748. (97) John Davis [possibly a bro. of (92) Francis] had a son Ichabod Bowden. Philip Rowell had a son, and (96) Francis Davis a grandson, each named Ichabod, the only ones of that name among the early Ames. Rowells and Davises. (96) Francis Davis had a son Philip, the only one of that name in the Ames. Davis families, though a tradition doubtfully ment. an earlier Philip.

These Davises and Rowells seem to have lived near each other in the West Parish, owning adjoining lands in some cases.

*The same register has Sicely Tayer bp. May 1, 1600. Also Frances Davys bp. July 4, 1619; John Davys bp. Jan. 28, 1620-1; Tayer godparents in both cases, no parents named. [G.R. vol. 60, pp. 284-7.]

97 JOHN DAVIS. Possibly a bro. of (92) FRANCIS?

424 SAMUEL<sup>4</sup> DAVIS, pp. 731-2, may be the same as (527) SAMUEL, p. 735; but if so, and if he had but one wife, Dorothy, she must have been 46 yrs. old when her youngest child was born. Perhaps "Bradford," p. 732, 3d line, should be Corinth, Vt. If the two are the same, the children were as follows:

- 471 DAVID<sup>5</sup>, b. 1748, p. 732. The Corinth rec. give 9 chil. b. 1772-88; the other two may have been rec. at Bradford.
 472 MARY<sup>5</sup>, bp. Dec. 10, 1749[1Kg], p. 732.
 473 JUDITH<sup>5</sup>, bp. Jan. 1, 1751-2[1Kg].
 Prob. several others, b. 1754-65, in Kg. or Hawke. (528) JOSHUA, p. 735, may be one of these.
 474 SIMEON<sup>5</sup>, b. Mch. 1, 1767[Cor].
 474a SARAH<sup>5</sup>, b. July 20, 1769[Cor].
 475 TIMOTHY<sup>5</sup>, b. Nov. 16, 1772[Cor].
 476 HANNAH<sup>5</sup>, b. Sept. 10, 1775[Cor].

*Dow Family, from (1) Henry<sup>1</sup>.**

1 HENRY<sup>1</sup> Dow, p. 742. R. P. Dow states that his stepson, Thomas Nudd, must have been one of the "four chil."; and the sentence "hence there must have been one more child . . ." should be erased. One child [no. 4, p. 133] d. on the voyage. Henry Dow may have bought and sold land in Nb., and adm. freeman there, but did not live there. Margaret "Cole" [p. 133] is spelled "Coole" on Dedham chh. rec.

 13 SIMON<sup>3</sup>, p. 134. Will, Sept. 18, Nov. 19, 1707; ment. wife Mehitable and chil. Simon<sup>4</sup>, Isaac<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan<sup>4</sup>, Mary<sup>4</sup>, Hannah<sup>4</sup>, Sarah<sup>4</sup>, and Mehitable<sup>4</sup>; also bro. Samuel<sup>3</sup>. Son Henry<sup>4</sup> was b. Mch. 28, 1708, after his father's death. Wid. Mehit. taxed in Hm. 1709; m. Nov. 21, 1711[S].

He states that the English ancestry of Henry<sup>1</sup> Dow in D. Hm. is incorrect, and gives a different ancestry, from the same Norfolk Co.

Items marked R. P. D. are furnished by him.

*We find the bp. of all the chil. here given, except David. It does not seem prob. that he was b. only 9 mos. after the birth of Daniel, who lived to be bp. when 1 y. old, 3 mos. after the birth of David. These records can be harmonized only by assuming errors. R. P. D. does not give Samuel, but gives chil. to both Daniel and David. Daniel, David, and Mary are the only chil. given on the S. V. R. If "Samuel" as printed in bp. should be Daniel and "Daniel" should be David, and if Daniel was b. in 1737, instead of 1738[see *Note, p. 957], then, omitting Samuel, Daniel<sup>5</sup>, b. Oct. 9, 1737, bp. July 30, 1738; David<sup>5</sup>, b. July 19, 1739, bp. Oct. 28, 1739, would be consistent, if not correct.

Falls in 1747 for "Schools," but no one of them for the "Minister." Only the first five were taxed for the "Province" [Brown's Hm. Falls]. Hm. Falls was incorporated in 1712; Seabrook in 1768. When the State boundary was changed, about 1741, a portion of Salis. was added to Hm. Falls, later becoming Seabrook.

‡These all appear on the town records as chil. of Sam and Sarah, and all except (104) Abner<sup>4</sup> are named in the will; hence they must constitute one family. It is difficult, however, to understand why the three youngest chil. should all be bp. in the East Parish on Friday and prob. not in the church, the only ones of that date, while the three older chil. were prob. bp. in the West Parish, on a Sunday, only 16 days later, and the oldest child, then over 15 ys. old, may have own. cov. and been bp. in the West Parish, 4 mos. earlier. The 1st chh. rec. names the parents, the 2d (West) does not [see pp. 431–2]. There seems to have been a religious revival and many bp. in the West Parish about that time. The father belonged to a Quaker family, but m. a "churchwoman" and left the Friends.

107 Joseph seems to have had 2 chil. bp. in the East Parish; the others in the West.

 121 XI JOHANNAH<sup>5</sup>, b. Aug. 6, 1740. [If John<sup>4</sup> had only one wife, Dinah, she must have been nearly 48 y. old when this child was b.]

NOTE. The Amesbury Friends Records contains births and deaths, arranged in families. One of these is that of JONATHAN DOW, b. 27: 11 m: 1737. Wife KEZIA, b. 11: 1 m: 1739. Chil.: Stephen, Anna, Mary, and Kezia, b. 1764-'77. The dates for the chil. must be in "new style." Those for the parents were evidently written after 1752, and may be in either new or old style, that is, Jonathan may have been b. Nov. 27 N. S., Nov. 16 O. S., or Jan. 27 O. S., Feb. 7 N. S. The same uncertainty as to the day of the month occurs when the name of the month is given for dates earlier than 1752, written later, but the Friends used numbers for the months. After 1752, January was the first month; before that the legal or civil year began March 25, and March was called the first month, though some church records make the year begin Jan. 1, and others used the double dating from Jan. 1 to Mch. 25.

No one of the above dates is near enough to Oct. 25 to suggest the identity of the above Jonathan and (120) Jonathan<sup>5</sup>.

4 SAMUEL<sup>2</sup> FOOT was accused of making "reproachful speeches against Mr. Hubberd, the minister," Mch. 9, 1671-2 [Es. Co. Ct. Rec. vol. 5, p. 302].

Rev. Jeremiah Hubbert, ordained at Topsfield, in 1672, was apparently the one at Amesbury, 1669-72 [p. 17]. If at Beverly [Bass River] "before 1672," it was probably before 1669. He must have preached in many places.

French Family. Pages 166-70, 750, 962.

1 EDWARD<sup>1</sup> FRENCH may have been the Edward b. 1598, son of Thomas French who m. Anne or Agnes Olmstead, of Stanstead Hall,

Halstead. Thomas was bur. in Halstead, Nov. 20, 1613. Edward was of Thorpe Morieux [Suffolk], Eng., in 1624. In 1639 he, the eldest son then living, was granted a commission to adm. est. of his bro. Thomas, in place of his bro. John, who had also died; but in 1642 this was revoked. If (1) Edward<sup>1</sup> was the one, he was in this country when appointed, and could not well perform the duties assigned him. [See G. R., vol. 65, p. 285.]

EDWARD<sup>1</sup> FRENCH may have m. Ann Swayne, sister of Rebecca Swayne-Biley-Hall-Worcester-Symonds. Rev. Wm. Worcester, whose second wife was Rebecca Swayne, makes "my brother, Edward French," one of the "overseers" of his will, in 1662. Moreover, (3) John<sup>2</sup> Hall, whose mother was Rebecca Swayne, speaks of "my uncle French," as on p. 962, where "(2)" JOHN<sup>2</sup> HALL should be (3) JOHN<sup>2</sup>.

- 88 Mr. THOMAS FRENCH, Sen., one of the earliest members of the Boston church, rem. to Ipswich in 1634[Sv]; dism. from the Boston chh. Jan. 27, 1638-9; d. in 1639. Adm. est. gr. Nov. 5, 1639[Pope]. In 1644 his wid. Alice was wife of Thomas Howlett. Alice, wife of Ens. Howlett, d. June 26, 1666[Ip].
- 89 Wid. SUSAN FRENCH, of Ip., who d. in 1658 [p. 166, NOTE], had a son John French (perhaps the John of 1648) who was ap. adm. her est. Sept. 28, 1658. A "Widdow French" (either Susan or Alice) was on the list of Ip. commoners in 1641.
- 90 SERJENT THOMAS FRENCH [Jr.] rec'd a grant of land in Ip. in Feb., 1636-7, and was a Commoner there in 1641. For family see †Note, p. 166. He may have been a son of either (88) Thomas or (89) Susan; but we find no proof of relationship.

There were at least two persons named John French in Ip. before 1680: one who was of age in 1648, perhaps the same as the son of Susan, 1658; the other the son of Sergt. [Ens.] Thomas ment. in his will, 1680, who was prob. of age before 1660. There also were at least three named Thomas French. A John was made freeman in 1660 and a Thomas in 1674.

We find no reason to suppose that Edward French was nearly related to any one of the others given above, though he lived in Ip. a short time, with the older ones.

Hoyt Family.

conversation between herself and Hoyt's wife and dau. Naomi about the Tuxbury controversy.

Thomas Tuxbury, of Boston and Newbury, left a wife and children in England. A letter had been received stating that his wife had died. Rev. Thomas Wells testified that it was directed "by superscription to Henry Tuxeberry in New England, dwelling near Newberey; and by inscription to Thomas Tuxeberry." This seems to indicate a relationship between Thomas of Newbury and Henry of Amesbury.

Thomas Tuxbury lived for a time in John Hoyt's house in Amesbury. He stated that he had a "great lamness," and went to Hoyt's wife "to have my hand cured." As Naomi Hoyt called him "uncell takesbery," we might infer that he went to his sister to have his hand cured; but he did not call her sister, and there would not be likely to be so much gossip about widow Bartlett's intention to marry Thomas Tuxbury, if he were known to be her mother's brother. The term uncle might imply that Tuxbury's wife was sister to either John Hoyt or his wife; but the term might indicate merely friendly relations. A man has sometimes been "uncle" to a whole neighborhood. [Es. Co. Ct., vol. 5, pp. 400-4.]

Charles T. Libby, of Portland, Me., has traced the three Hoyt brothers: (28) JOHN<sup>3</sup>, (29) WILLIAM<sup>3</sup>, and (30) Israel<sup>3</sup> and their families. It is hoped that his work will soon be printed, and the Newington, Berwick, Portsmouth and other branches [pp. 113-8, 187-97, Hoyt Genealogy] be connected with the rest of the family.

This was done for the Worcester Co. branch [pp. 198-207, Hoyt Genealogy] when (77) BENJAMIN<sup>4</sup> (27 Ephraim<sup>3</sup>) was proved to be the same person as (2439) BENJAMIN. ### Rowell Family.

Most of the following Rowell records, except those from the printed vital records of Mass., have been furnished by George P. Rowell, Esq., of Stamford, Ct. In preparation for a proposed Genealogy of the Rowell Family, he has made a full collection of data from the probate and land records of New Hampshire, down to 1850; also all vital records of towns and churches now in Concord, in addition to other materials.* All this he has freely allowed the present writer to use, and bears the expense of printing these Rowell records.

They have been numbered and arranged to correspond with those previously printed by the compiler of these pages.

1 THOMAS<sup>1</sup> ROWELL, p. 303. The "will" was prob. a contract made about the time of his second marriage, used in settling the estate, and therefore entered on the probate records.

*He has also studied early English records as far back as the year 1100, finding several churchmen, a chancellor of Oxford University, 1283, and a Crusader, 1242, among the Rowells. The name Thomas was very common. Valentine Rowell of Staffordshire, will probated in 1613, also suggests a possible connection with the Colonial Rowells, who were early found not only in Mass. and N. H., but also in Ct. and southern colonies. Thomas Rowell, of Windsor, Ct., 1635, left many descendants. A Valentine Rowell was of Stratford, Ct., in 1733. Deeds show that several Ct. Rowells early owned land in N. H. See (44) Benoni, p. 1086.

†It should be noted that Jacob<sup>2</sup> was prob. more than 30 y. old when he m. Mary Younglove. He lived for a time, when a young man, in Elizabethtown, N. J. He may possibly have had wife and chil. there; but no such record has been found.

44 BENONI ROWELL, p. 1073. Parentage not found. Hist. Salem, N. H., p. 52, states that the Rowell family came from Londonderry. Mr. George P. Rowell received information some years ago from a member of the Salem branch, tending to indicate that Benoni came from England and settled in Salem, but this information is not of such character as to furnish satisfactory genealogical proof. See (195) GERARD, (196) ELIPHALET. Hist. Gilsu<sup>m</sup>, N. H., seems to state that the Sm. branch is descended from the Ct. Rowells. 44 BENONI may possibly have been a son of (3) JACOB by his first wife, but no record has been found connecting him with (3) JACOB or with Ipswich, and the records of marriages and births seem to be complete. See * note, p. 1072.

194 JOHN ROWELL, "late deceased in the ship Sea Flower." Adm. est. gr. Thomas Smith Apr. 15, 1681. Balance of wages due him at the time of his death [Suffolk, Bk. 9, p. 65].

195 GERARD ROWELL signed a petition for a Presybterian Church in Bedford, N. H. (Souhegan East), May 10, 1750. "Narragansett township No. 5, alias Bedford and part of Merrimac" [N. H. Prov. Papers, vol. 9, p. 52]. Probably one of those who migrated from the north of Ireland. May not have left descendants in this country.

196 ELIPHALET ROWELL, of Londonderry, which is near Chester and Candia, bought land in Bow in Nov., 1776. Chil., b. 1778-1800, rec. at Bow: John, Joseph, Eliphalet, James, Fanny, James, Amos, Euphama. He was dead in 1817, when a guard. was ap. for his son Amos. The names of his chil. bear little resemblance to those of the Chester-Candia branch, and suggest a possible connection with (195) GERARD. Londonderry and Bedford were both Scotch-Irish Presbyterian towns.

197 WILLIAM ROWELL, of Marblehead. A child of Wm. and Mary bp. (Aug. 4?) 1741. George, son of Wm., bur. May 15, 1747[Marl V R].

1 WILLIAM SAMMON. Deposition [Es. Ct., vol. 5, p. 402] gives Wm. "Saman" ab. 38 y. old in 1674; therefore b. ab. 1636. If his wife was Hannah<sup>2</sup> Button (Matthias<sup>1</sup>), she was b. in 1652. He would be ab. 54 and she 38 when their son Abiel was born in 1690. There may have been two sons b. between 1676 and 1687, when the A. rec. are missing; and he may have had another wife and chil. bef. 1675.

10 JACOB<sup>s</sup> STANYAN, of Hm. Falls. Wife Dorothy adm. full com. July 20, 1712. He was bp. and adm. Aug. 24, 1712. A Jacob was taxed in Hm. Falls in 1747. Six of the 10 chil. given in D. Hm. were bp. at Hm. Falls: Mary<sup>4</sup>, Sept. 8, 1712; Joseph<sup>4</sup>, May 8, 1715; Jacob<sup>4</sup>, Dec., 1717; Rachel<sup>4</sup> and Anne<sup>4</sup>, twins, Jan. 13, 1722-3; Sarah<sup>4</sup>, July 11, 1725. These dates do not all correspond exactly with those of births in D. Hm., especially as those of Mary and the twins are a few days earlier than the births, while that of Joseph is more than a year later than the birth. The dates of baptisms appear to be accurate and "Old Style." If the births were recorded after 1752, in "New Style," then 11 days later than "Old Style," that would account for the discrepancy. [See *Note, p. 957.]

JOHN<sup>4</sup> (4 James<sup>s</sup>) was liv. in 1742. If both the above paragraphs relate to him, he must have had three wives, the first dying bef. June, 1734; the second, Abigail, after Feb., 1742; and the third, Mary, surviving him.

JOHN<sup>4</sup> (10 Jacob<sup>s</sup>). We find no certain mention of him after his birth in 1710, one of 10 chil. of Jacob. He was not ment. in the will of (2) John<sup>s</sup> in 1718, though his younger bro., Joseph<sup>4</sup>, and other grandsons, John<sup>4</sup> (4 James<sup>s</sup>),
